No 332

Liffingayadi Taluk Tas
Office Duttur 3^d May 1915

To

The General Duty Deputy Collector
South Canara

Sir,

I beg to report that I have this day forwarded a petition of L. G.
Saldanha, Clerk of this office, praying that he may be transferred to Kasaragod Taluk Office in place of Clerk Dasappa deceased with an endorsement that I have no objection to the transfer of the petitioner.

2. I beg to submit herewith an application from H. Balaya, the permanent, Dyestribund of the Stationary Sub-Magistrate's Office Duttur and now an acting Land Trade Registration Clerk, praying that the post held by L. G. Saldanha who is on the probability of being transferred to Kasaragod may be conferred on him.

3. The said H. Balaya is the District School Examination Officer & Treasurer

Clerk Office class and also the Judicial Attorney Criminal Lower Grade. It has been ordered in your Circular No 1047 6.9.93
Candidates should pass the Special Examination to secure promotion.

When he was an acting clerk under me he has worked to my entire satisfaction and during the absence of my Head Clerk on leave he has likewise done the work of the whole office, and thus he has a good experience of the work of the office.
His caste people are very rarely employed in Public Service. When the said L. G. Saldanha was on leave H. Balaya was for some time looking after his work.

5. There are no other candidates in this office who have better claims than and who are senior to H. Balaya to be appointed in L. G. Saldanha's place.

6. I beg therefore to strongly recommend that in case of L. G. Saldanha's transfer, H. Balaya may be appointed in his place and D. Dai who is now Deputy Assistant Superintendent may be confirmed in his office as before.

I beg to remain,
Sir, your obedient first assistant

Copyist Balaya is a good Copyist. He is worthy of being given some Clerical post, there being none of his caste in the public Service (Superior in this Taluk.

Edipi { 8. 9. 92 } /Signed/ Mahomed Khan
Taluk Sheristdar

I have known Mahomed Balaya from last January. He had been a Copyist in the Edipi Taluk Contingent. He has passed the Middle School Examination in the first class. He is smart, attentive, obedient and a promising youth of good character. When the Revenue Inspectors of Edipi Division had applied for leave Balaya was recommended by the Tahsildar of this Taluk to a post of clerk on Rs 15 in that Division. But before the orders were received on the recommendation he was sent to Dathur, having been appointed by the Collector as a Sub-protem attendant in the Stationary Sub-Magistrates' office at that place. I shall be glad to hear of his advancement.
