I think it is very desirable that Dr. Duncan's services should be retained. As he says, there are many important questions pending - especially Education, control over students' boarding houses, technical instruction, &c. - which will be more easily decided with the help of his experience than without it. He is a good director & I don't see how to get a good substitute for him.

Ed. Cor. 21 600-20-7-96.
Office of Director of Public Instruction, Madras, 24 Sept 1897.

My dear Forbes

The period of one year for which my service was extended expires on the 31st March next. If it is consistent with the public interests that I should continue in my present appointment I shall be glad if my service is extended for an additional year. Physically & mentally I consider myself to be as fit as ever for my work, and experience ought of course, to make me all the more able to perform my duties satisfactorily. Moreover, there are several ~~great~~ pending both in my own Department & in the University which I can hardly expect to see carried through before the 31st March next.

Truly yours
J. G. S. Gorman
