To

The Director of Public Instruction,
Madras.

Sir,

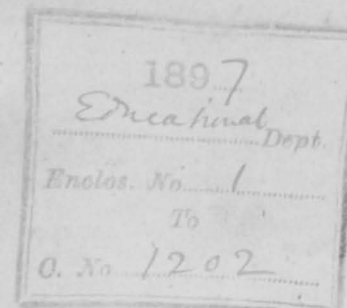

Having brought to the notice of the Managing Committee of the Lawrence Asylum that it would save a considerable amount of time and trouble, if either the Assistant Adjutant General or the ^{Assistant} Quarter Master General, Madras Command, (who reside at Ootacamund) is allowed to countersign cheques instead of me, as I live in Coonoor which is 14 miles distant from Ootacamund, it was resolved that Government should be approached on the subject, in view to the Assistant Adjutant General being authorized to sign or countersign cheques.

2. It is pointed out that cheques are now signed by the Principal and Secretary who thus vouches for their correctness and they are then countersigned by either the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman.

3. Should Government be pleased to accord its sanction, a modification of No 7 of the rules of the Institution will be necessary.

I have &c
