Sir,

P.W. Accounts

I have the honor to inform you that it appears from G.O. No 96 Educational dated 16/2/97 (G.O. 68745 of 9/3/97) that school superintendents holding permanent appointments of Rs 12 prior to 1st July 1894 are ineligible for promotion to Rs 15 or upwards unless they are qualified for the posts under the revised examination rules.

2 This decision is clear so far as promotion to appointments classed as "superior" is concerned but the question now arises as to whether the same principle principle is applicable to the promotion of unpassed permanent lascars and lock superintendents to posts of Rs 8, 10 and 12.

3 Since the 40 in question cancels the 1st part of note 1 of the Public Service Notification it seems to me that unpassed Candidates although holding permanent appointments before 1st July 1894 are ineligible for promotion to posts classed as inferior and posts of less than Rs 15 per mensem unless they pass the primary examination or other equivalent examinations prescribed for such posts in rule 1 of the Public Service Notification.

4 I would request, however, the favour ^{of your} views on the subject.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant

The Primary Exam rule came into force in the case of inferior servants only on the 1st January 1897 & not on the 1st July 94.

principle is applicable to the promotion of unpassed permanent lascars and lock superintendents to posts of Rs 8, 10 and 12.
3 Since the 40 in question cancels the 1st part of note 1 of the Public Service Notification it seems to me that unpassed Candidates although holding permanent appointments before 1st July 1894 are ineligible for promotion to posts classed as inferior and posts of less than Rs 15 per mensem unless they pass the primary examination or other equivalent examinations prescribed for such posts in rule 1 of the Public Service Notification.
