READ the following letter from the Collector of Gajiam, Q. G. No. $\frac{3447}{7}$, dated 31st August 1897:-

I have the honor to point out that it has been found necessary in the course of famine operations to appoint several temporary hands to posts carrying a salary of Rs 20, such persons being unpassed candidates. The Board is well aware of the difficulty, so far as Gajiam is concerned of obtaining passed candidates even for ordinary appointments.

In Government order 603 Revenue, 2. dated 19th July 1889, para 7 the rule as to the employment of none but passed candidates was ordered to be held in advance in the case of temporary appointments for Famine duty. It does not appear that this order has ever been cancelled and I therefore request information as to whether it may still be considered to be in force.

3. If not, I request that the General sanction of Government may be obtained to a renewal of the exemption for Gaujam during the present Famine.

Resolution

Submitted to Government, with the request that the Collector's action in appointing unpassed candidates to temporary appointments on famine duty, may be approved as a special case.
