Thro. The Registrar of Chingleput & the Inspector Genl of May it please Your Excellency Registration Madras

With due deference and profound respects I T. Ramarajulu Naidu 8th Clerk of the Registrar's Office, Saidapet, Chingleput District beg to submit the following to the wisdom of Government His Excellency the Governor in Council Madras.

That I entered the Registration department on the 13th February 1888 as Clerk on No 14, i.e. only 43 days after the introduction of the first reorganisation of the clerical staff of the department and that I am debarred from promotion being an unpassed Candidate.

2. That in the second reorganisation scheme of the clerical establishment which came into force on the 1st June 1894, my name has been excluded from the list of clerks that were recommended for exemption on the sole ground that I was not entertained in the department prior to 1st January 1888.

3. That I should have been thus left to shiver in the cold for no other reason than that I had not stepped into the department a few days (12) earlier, has caused me immense sorrow and disappointment. For the last 7 years I have been dragging on a most miserable existence with my inadequate pay of Rs 14, losing several chances for promotion on several occasions.

4. What the misery and fate of this poor petitioner would be should he be so unfortunate as not to aspire for more than Rs 14 per mensem till the end of his service under Government it is for His Excellency to consider.

"Oh thou immeasurable fountain of mercy!"
The ornament of truth! It is to my good fortune I venture to submit that thy sacred feet rest on the earthly floor of this Presidency. I could not seize on a better opportunity than this to entrust myself to thy kind patronage and sympathy.

5. If I am in any way inefficient to discharge the duties of a clerk of the Registration department I would make up my mind to be satisfied with my present paltry pay. On the other hand if His Excellency is convinced from the invariable testimony (copies enclosed) borne by my immediate superiors that my case is a special one that deserves special consideration, I humbly crave that the concession granted to Registration clerks that entered the department only a few days earlier than myself viz eligible to draw a pay of Rs 15 and above may be allowed to me. I having for the last 9 years discharged my humble duties with zeal and integrity would consider it an incalculable boon if at this juncture His Excellency out of Sheer Commiseration and grace be pleased to take my hard case into Consideration and exempt me for bring eligible for further promotion in the clerical branch in the department.

For which act of charity and benevolence
I ~~am~~ as in duty bound shall ever pray for His Excellency's long life, health & prosperity.
I beg to remain

May it please your Excellency,
Your Excellency's most obedient & humble Servant.

J. Ramajulu Naidu

Ramanujulu Nayudu has served under me as a Registrar Clerk for the last four years during which period, I have found him to be very obedient, hardworking & trustworthy. He has discharged his duties very conscientiously. His hand-writing in English, Tamil & Telugu, can by all means be pronounced to be very excellent. It is only pity that he has not passed any examination. I should be very happy to see him exempted & in the very branch he is now employed in.

It affords me great pleasure to bear testimony to the praiseworthy character and ability of the bearer here of namely. J. Ramanjula Aidi, Clerk Sub Registrars Office Sathiavedu. During the period of the past one year I presided over this office, I found him to be an intelligent honest & hardworking young man. He writes a neat hand in English, Tamil, & Telugu and possesses a fair knowledge of the Registration Act & Rules. He is fond of work & it is just the sort of man required for the clerical duties in the Registration Dept. He richly deserves encouragement & promotion.

This is to Certify that I Ramajulu Naidu Served under me for about 2 years as Clerk in the Sub Registrar's Office Sathyavada. His behaviour was exemplary, a more trustworthy efficient and painstaking hand I have not come across. His handwriting in Tamil, Telugu, and English is not only fast, but exceptionally neat. He justly deserves to be exempted from his disability to be promoted to posts carrying a salary of Rs 15.

G.No. 6/50 dated 6 October 1897.

Madras.

Submitted to Government with the following remarks.

2. The memorialist entered the department on 13th. February 1888 or, as he himself admits, 45 days after the fixed salary system was introduced under the orders of Government, No. 2985, 2895 Judicial, dated 20th. December 1887. Prior to 1st. January 1888, the clerks were remunerated by a percentage on the fees collected in their offices. Memorialist, though an unpassed man, happened to be acquainted with both Tamil and Telugu, and as a clerk conversant with two languages was badly wanted for the Subregistry office at Sattiyavedu in the Chingleput District, he (the memorialist) was appointed to the post on the 20th. January 1888, under the system of payment by commission and joined the appointment on the 13th. February 1888.

3. The salary scheme referred to above was carried out in March 1888, but was given effect to from the 1st. January 1888, and in the arrangement, memorialist was appointed a clerk on Rs.14 per mensem. As most of the clerks who had entered the department prior to 1st. January 1888 were unpassed men, and as those amongst them as were assigned Rs.15 and upwards could not draw their salaries unless exempted from the operation of the Educational tests prescribed in G.O., No. 482, ^{Educational}, dated 28 July 1886, and introduced with effect from the 1st. July 1887, a list of the clerks requiring exemption was submitted to Government and was formally sanctioned in G.O., No. 2570, Judicial, dated 13th. December 1888. In this list the names of unpassed clerks who entered service after the 1st. July 1887 were excluded, as also - the names of clerks of longer service who could not hope to get any promotion owing to the sanctioned scale of the district not containing sufficient number of appointments on Rs.15 and upwards. In its later orders, Nos. 450, Educational, dated 20th. June 1890 and 1534, Judicial, dated 1st. August 1891, Government declined to reconsider the principles on which the question of exemption was settled.

to

4. In June 1894, another scheme for the reorganisation of the clerical staff with more liberal rates of pay was introduced, and Mr. Srinivasa Raghavaiyengar again urged the propriety of exempting from the examination rules all clerks who had entered service prior to the date of the introduction of the first - scheme for clerical establishments, viz. 1st. January 1888, and the Government was pleased to sanction his recommendation in G.O., No. 559, Educational, dated 17th. May 1894.

5. The memorialist having joined the department only on the 13th. February 1888, his name was not included either in the exemption list prepared by Mr. Hamnett in 1888, or in that prepared in 1894 by his successor. He applied to the late Inspector-General praying that his name might be included in the exemption list prepared by him for submission to Government in 1894, but his prayer was refused on the ground that he entered service subsequently to 1st. January 1888.

6. The case of the memorialist is no doubt a hard one, the more so as he is reported to be a very willing and hardworking - subordinate. If he is exempted, there will be at least three others who might fairly claim a similar concession. These men were not included in the previous lists on the ground that they had passed the general test or the Middle School Examination in the first class, and as such were eligible for promotion under the rules in force prior to the issue of the notification dated 9th. May 1894.
