Mr. Senter

This man has been employed as a nobile
 in most of the Revenue cases before me.
 He gets up his cases well and has always given me satisfaction with his style of work.
 He wants some appointments but I have not been able to make him with me.

(Enc. 2)

I have known Mr. G. H. Brown for the last 15 or 16 months - During that time he has appeared in many many summary appeals (chiefly under Ed of the) & has always done his duty well both his client & the Court. I mentioned him a host in the office when an opportunity occurred but was unable to perform my promise.
 I hope my successor will take an opportunity of giving him something - He would be found
 I think very useful in the office.

CURRENT NO 1392

To His Excellency

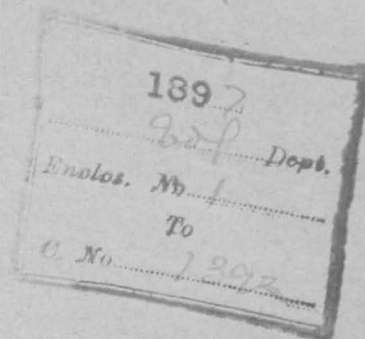

The Governor in Council
Fort Saint George
Madras.

The humble memorial of Bruttuventi Gopal Bora of Masulipatam.
Most humbly sheweth.

That your Excellency's humble
and poor petitioner entered the Police department in July 1870 as a Head constable on Rs 20 per mensem and served in it for about 10 years and resigned in November 1880 owing to some unavoidable circumstances.

2. Petitioner then commenced practice as a private nabil in Magisterial & Revenue courts and obtained good testimonials from two District Collectors viz Mr J. G.
Knoxall and Mr P. W. Austin as to his conduct and qualifications (copies of which are herein enclosed for your Excellency's kind perusal).

3. Mr P. W. Austin was pleased to promise petitioner with a post in his office, but whenever fortune he (Mr P. W. Austin) had a sudden transfer from this District to Madras as Sea Customs collector.

4 After petitioner resigned the Police service he submitted a petition to your Excellency in 1882 when he went to Madras on business requesting that he may be exempted to enter the public service again without bar as to his age &c.

Petition

Your Excellency was pleased to favor him with an endorsement to the effect that there is nothing to prevent his re-employment in Government service if he entertained before his twenty fifth year in an office carrying person &c (copy of which is also is herein enclosed for your Excellency's kind perusal)

5- Your Excellency's poor petitioner for few months past has been a copyist in the District Court at this place & when ^{ever} he applied for a permanent post on its occurrence, he was told that his age exceeds 25 and that he must pass an examination for such an appointment.

Petitioner entered the public service in the beginning when he was exactly at age 23 and served for about 10 years and then resigned. His present age is about 50. He passed the N. C. S. examination in English Vernacular branch and Judicial Test Criminal Law & Police Inspector's Test. It is now a question whether he can now do service or not till he recovers himself or does not.

require any pension - If God spares his life long, he can no doubt serve for more than 10 years looking to his present age and strength & other circumstances - What he now requests your Excellency is, whether there is any objection under the above circumstances and under the authority of your Excellency's order herein enclosed to enter the public service without any bar as to his age without passing any examination and do the work till he is able to do so whether for one year, 5 years or 10 years ~~more~~ or so.

Under the present rules fixed by the Government he is no doubt able to do work for 5 years more till he attains the age of 55 years - After which special sanction may be given by your Excellency if your Excellency pleases say the Doctor certifies as to his fitness for further service.

Under these circumstances, your Excellency's poor and helpless petitioner begs that your Excellency may highly be pleased to peruse the whole cause - condense and bring his home case into your Excellency's kind valuable consideration and grant him an endorsement as your Excellency may please and think proper - From which act of kindness & justice, your Excellency's poor petitioner, shall, as in duty bound ever have
