For Orders

As to whether the memorial may be withheld under Rule XII (4) of A. Memorial Rules?

The petitioner who appears to be somewhat crazy requests that his invalid pension of Rs 19-9-0 may be increased to Rs 64, the pay he was drawing before he was pensioned & that on his death a pension of Rs 19-9-0 may be settled on his son. He never made these requests to this Govt.

I do not think there is any rule under which it can be withheld, so it will with high observation write above effect

The Government of Madras

(Thro' the Chief Secretary to ^{the} Gov't)

A request of a beggar who has undersigned this.

Most respectfully sheweth,

That the petition enclosed here, the order of the Govt passed thereon, and the petition addressed to Her Most Gracious Majesty, on the Diamond Jubilee Day, together with the said things as its enclosures, found my hands, just, with the Proceedings of the Govt, dated 21-8-1897, P. No. 921, which runs thus—
“That no representations from individuals in India will be entertained by the Home Govt unless they shall have been submitted thro’ the Local Govt.”

Being so, the beggar asks the Govt now, to submit them to the Home Government with a kind recommendation for the realisation of the beggar's entreaty, in his petition to Her Majesty, at Her Majesty's Divine Motherly hands, seeing how hard has become the fate of this beggar and of his children, after all, for his very honesty, hard service and pithy and how blaming would it have been, on the part of the Govt, in the eye of God, if he were not cared after, even in the manner, solicited.

To turn out a beggar, in the manner, while he is yet fit to serve, if the Govt would only employ him suitably, is next to dying actual death, to one of this man's principles, to weigh the amount of pain he should have had in doing so, and that because the Govt wouldn't have pity for him to re-employ him so, after all his entreaties therefor, therefore he has resorted to such a course, as the last alternative and he will crave the Govt, therefore, to grant this favour at least, for to live on earth, otherwise till his natural death could despatch him hence, he finds it impossible indeed. - Tears.

As a pleader, he hates living life, for his own reasons, and hence his poverty as if amidst plenty, the honorable nature of the pleaders' profession, he believes, has been diminished, by the increase of the Native pleaders, without end, by the Legal Practitioners Act.

H. A. Swaminudier

A poor pensioner of the Madras Govt, as the Late Head Master of the Namakkal High School, in Nambarom, as a First Grade Pleader of the Tanjore District, and High Court Vakil of the Travancore State.

Sir,

I am directed to submit for the orders of the H.E. the G.O. in C. a memorial addressed to Her Majesty by M. R. Ry M. A. Swaminatha Aiyar, a pensioned school-master, in which he requests that his invalid pension of Rs 19-9-0 a month may be increased to Rs 64, ^{the pay} which he was in receipt of at the time of his retirement and that after his death a pension of Rs 19-9-0 a month may be settled on his son.

 I am to remark that the
