Orders

The Bd may be informed that its presumption in para 1 of its pro. is correct?

The presumption in para 2 does not appear to be correct. The concession applies only to those posts which are specially designated type-writing clerks?

The view taken in the note appears to be correct. Unless a special type-writer clerk has been appointed, the machine may be worked by any Resolution.

Adverting to Government Order Mis.No.4838,Revenue, dated 14th September 1897,sanctioning the purchase of 3 type writers for its office the Board requests to be informed whether with reference to the orders quoted in the margin Government Orders Nos.87, Educational,dated 11th February 1897 and 366,Educational,dated 1st July 1897. it is right in holding:- (I)that up to the 31st December 1897it can entertain unpassed candidates for working the Type-writers if they are competent to work the machines and (II)that from and after the 1st January 1898 it can similarly entertain unpassed candidates for the work provided they have passed the Intermediate or Elementary Examination in Type-writing according as the pay of the post is Rs.20 and above or below Rs.20.
The Board considers that its presumption is supported by the addition of the rule sanctioned in Government Order No.89, Educational,dated 1st February 1897 to the list of concessions contained in article 4 of the Public Service Notifi-

Notification, by the wording of the first two lines of the Government Order, chiefly the words "in future" and by the absence of inverted commas after the word "upwards" at the end of the altered rule in Government Order No. 366, Educational, dated 1st. ^{July} September/97.

3. The Board requests also to be informed as to whether it is right in considering that the concession granted by clause 13 of article 4 of the Public Service Notification applies to all offices for which type-writers are sanctioned and not to only those offices for which special clerks under the denomination of type-writing clerks may have been sanctioned.
