The Secretary to Government

Through the Collector of Madurai.

The humble memorial of
A. Subba Narayana Aiyar Clerk, Collector's Office, Madurai,
Most Respectfully Sheweth:—

That your humble petitioner is a public servant of 14 years standing, he having entered the Revenue Department in 1883, after passing the Matriculation Examination held in December 1881.

2. That at the time of his first engagement in the Service and up to so recently as October 1893, petitioner had, in conjunction with other fellow servants of similar Educational qualifications, every hope of rising in the Public Service, to the responsible situations of a Deputy Tahsildar and Sub Magistrate and a Tahsildar, and, as far as the intervals of leisure he could snatch from his arduous clerical work permitted him, he had qualified himself for promotion by passing 5 or 6 years ago, (1) Prent. Writing Higher, (2) Translation Lower Grade, (3) Revenue Test Lower Grade, (4) Civil Account Lower Grade, & (5) Survey Test.

3. The petitioner begs leave to submit that the aforesaid Examinations are the only ones immediately necessary for his advancement up to the grade leading next to a Sub-Magistrate's post.

4. That the hopes and aspirations of all matriculated public servants were blasted by the Order prohibiting them from appearing for the Criminal Test Higher or Lower Grade from October 1893, and petitioner's misfortune was aggravated by the fact that he was

5 years
Some effect in 1889 that matriculates would be excluded from the criminal test after Dec 93.

unable to obtain leave on account of his heavy office work, and study and pass the test during the period allowed.

That, to petitioner's further misfortune, even his hopes of rising to the Grade of Taluk Head Accountant, have been extinguished by the general wish of Collectors that preference for this post and for the Head Clerkship in Divisional Offices and in the Mazis should be given to candidates who have passed one of the 2 tests in the Higher Grade. Petitioner not having passed B. A. is also debarred from passing Revenue Higher, and the result is that from an unfortunate and unforeseen combination of circumstances, petitioner has been debarred from rising higher than a Revenue Inspector's post carrying a salary of only Rs 40 in the Executive Branch of the Revenue Department; and this too, after he has been doing responsible work in the Collector's Office to the best of his abilities, and he trusts to the full satisfaction of his Official Superiors.

6. That the petitioner humbly craves the Honorable Government to take into their benign Consideration his hard lot in being deprived of all chances of advancement after such a length of faithful Service.

7. Petitioner therefore humbly beseeches the Honorable Government to be graciously pleased, to allow petitioner as a special case, to appear for the Criminal Higher Grade and thus protect him.

For which act of kindness he shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Forwarded. CURRENT NO 1415

The applicant ought to have passed the tests before 1893, but I have been pleased with his work, and he has more sense than many of those with higher Educational Qualifications.
I should be very glad to see him exempted from the rule which bars him from the tests.
