GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers:—

G.O., Nos. 727, 728, Educational, dated 10th December 1897.

Read—the following letter from the Hon'ble Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 19th October 1897, No. 11633:—

I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for the continuance of the house-rent allowance of Rs. 80 a month sanctioned in G.O., No. 925, Educational, dated 3rd December 1894, to Miss Arnold, Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras. The period for which the allowance was originally sanctioned expired on 28th June last and she has since been confirmed in the new Indian Educational Service in G.O., No. 498, Educational, dated 2nd September 1897.

2. I would, in this connection, invite the attention of Government to paragraph 4 of this office letter, No. 8269, dated 3rd September 1894, recommending the house-rent allowance, and though Mr. Munro suggested in paragraph 5 that the allowance might be discontinued on the expiry of the covenanted period, I would strongly recommend its continuance in view of the fact that the Principal of the Teachers' College who is also a member of the Indian Educational Service continues to get a similar allowance, while the Vice-Principal has been provided with free quarters.

3. Provision has been made for the charge in the current year's budget.

Order—No. 727, Educational, dated 10th December 1897.

The sanction of the Government of India will be sought to the continuance of the house allowance of Rs. 80 a month to Miss Arnold.

To the Director of Public Instruction.

Letter—No. 728, Educational, dated 10th December 1897, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

I am directed to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Government of India to the continuance to Miss Arnold, Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras, of the house allowance of Rs. 80 a month, sanctioned in Mr. Thornton's letter, No. 350, Home Department (Education), dated the 19th November 1894.

Miss Arnold came out in 1892 under an agreement to serve this Government for a period of five years, which expired on the 28th June last. She drew a pay of Rs. 300 a month and the carriage allowance of Rs. 50 under her agreement and had free quarters on the school premises. But as the rooms in her occupation were required for the school she was asked to vacate them in 1894, and was given instead thereof a house allowance of Rs. 80 a month. This allowance ceased with the expiration of the period of her agreement with Government on the 28th June. Miss Arnold has since been confirmed in the Indian Educational Service as Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses on Rs. 350—10—450; and the effect of this has been to reduce her emoluments from Rs. 430 a month to Rs. 350. But as the principle has been recognised, in connection with the reorganization of the Educational services in India, that existing members of the service should not suffer by the introduction of the new scheme, His Excellency the Governor in Council considers it reasonable that the house allowance of Rs. 80 a month should be continued to Miss Arnold.

(Signed) H. TREMENHEERE,
Ag. Secretary to Government.

From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Education), to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Calcutta, 5th February 1898, No. 42.

In reply to your letter, No. 728, dated the 10th December 1897, I am directed to state that the Government of India sanction the continuance to Miss Arnold, Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, of the house allowance of Rs. 80 a month (which, under the orders conveyed in Home Department letter, No. 350, of the 19th November 1894, expired in June 1897), on the understanding that the allowance will be absorbed as increments to her salary accrue.
