Sir,

In forwarding herewith a copy of Sompel Deputy Tahsildar's aji to $\frac{2148}{12.12.97}$, I have the honor to request that you will take steps to get V. L. Narasimhamurti exempted permanently from the Examination rules for the reasons stated by the Deputy Tahsildar.

The man is no doubt very useful and his case therefore deserves your favourable consideration.

Most honored Sir,

I beg to state that you have been pleased to appoint N. Raghavareo Naidu temporarily as Tree Can clerk of my office vide your R. G. No 795^{Rev} of 97 dated 22-5-1897.

Raghavareo is now doing the work up to day.
2. The permanent Dufflerbund of my office is V. L. Narasimhamurthy. He acted as famine clerk of my office on No 20.

This appointment ceased from the beginning of this month and he was obliged to revert to his permanent appointment. Although Narasimhamurthy holds the lowest appointment of my office is the best of all. He was a great help to me during the late famine and discharged his duties as famine clerk to my entire satisfaction.

Satisfaction. In consideration of his valuable assistance I recommend him as a special case to confirm him as a tree tan clerk of my office. Just before the famine he was offered a clerk's post of Rs 14 in the Local Sub Registrar's office but I did not permit him to go.

3. It is a pity that he did not pass the qualifying test required for Superior appointments in the Public Service. He passed only the Special Upper Primary Examination and is quite fit to discharge the duties of a clerk. He writes a good hand both in English and Telugu.

4. If there is any objection to confirm him as Tree tan clerk, in the ordinary way, I humbly beg of you to move the Collector to obtain Government sanction for his appointment as a Special case in consideration of his good work in the famine.

5. In anticipation of your sanction I have appointed Narasimhamurthy temporarily from today as Tree Tan clerk vice Raghavara Naidu Naidu and request your early sanction to his change in his appointment so that his pay may be drawn.

G. N. Raghavarao may be appointed as Subprotem Duptenboud vice Narasimhamurthy on other duty.

Dated Camp January 1896

Sir,

As directed in your letter C. No. 1124
Eng
of 95 dated 27th August 1895, I have the honor to submit for favourable consideration and recommendation to Government as a Special one for sanction the case of D. Jagannadharan, Dupliar bound of my office.

From the service book of D. Jagannadharan it appears that he was first entertained in Government service in 1888 as Dupliar bound in the Dehagun Deputy Tahsildari office and worked there till the end of March 1890. In famine year of 1889 his services were engaged for six months as a clerk on Rs 15, and he is said to have deserved the promotion he was given by his constant attention to duty. Subsequently he

he was transferred to the Ganjam Deputy Tahsildar's office where he was for about a year. During his stay he is reported to have done his best to prove a useful assistant to the Deputy Tahsildar especially in Census.

Ganjam fever which was most commonly prevalent in those days on account of which his health was impaired necessitated his transfer at his own request to Sompeta.

In 1892 he was specially taken to this office as the services of an English knowing Scribe were badly needed. In 1893 he was temporary Record clerk on Rs 15 for six months in the Tahsildar's office and acted several times as a clerk on Rs 15 and 20.

I know that he has considerable experience of office routine and is quite good enough for a Taluk Qumastah's appointment.

Excepting the fact that he could not secure a pass in the first class in the Middle school Examination he is in other respects above the average middle school candidates who passed in the first class. He knows English English, Telugu and Oriya and writes a fair and running hand. He is hard working and intelligent.

Not to speak of the difficulties to secure passed candidates and the consequent inconveniences which stand in the way of proper despatch of business, Jagannadharan Pantulu seems to me to deserve exemption since he has proved himself useful in many ways in my office, ever since I have been in charge and since he is now thoroughly acquainted with the working of the Department.

I therefore beg to recommend him for exemption from Examination rules as he possesses sufficient knowledge of English which renders him eligible to hold a permanent post in Superior Service.

Dated 23rd Jan 1888

To His Excellency the Right Honorable
Sir Arthur Elibank Haavelock,
C.M.G., K.C.M.G., G.C.M.G.,
Governor of Madras Presidency,
Fort Saint George, Madras.

May it please your Excellency,

The humble memorial of D. Jagannadharan,
Acting & Clerk, Senior Assistant Collector
Office Gungam, respectfully sheweth:—

That the memorialist cannot but represent his grievances once more to your Lordship and for which he humbly begs to be pardoned.

Mr. Rice, (the then Senior Asst Collector) who has had an experience of 5 years of the memorialist, submitted his recommendation for the exemption of the memorialist from the Examination Rules after carefully judging over his merits.

If he finds that the memorialist is not a deserving man for exemption he would have not taken any action. Every Officer under whom the memorialist served in sympathies, with the memorialist regarding his State, that the pay of Rs 7 is not at all sufficient for his hard work.

At the instance of some of the Officers the memorialist worked hard without sparing pains unlike other fellow clerks with a view that the Government would take up his Cause.

But the Government, in its Proceedings No. 257 Educational, 3-5-97, was pleased to give an Endorsement negatively on his former memorial.

There is no less Government exempt a man who does the duties of 2 clerks to the entire satisfaction of his superiors.

Recently, that is, in December last one Mr. Varasimhamurti a Middle School 1st Class Candidate who was considered under the present rules as an unpassed Candidate and whose duties are not so important as those of the memorialist, after 1 year's service in the Revenue Department, was exempted by the Government on his memorial.

He has not so much service and experience as the memorialist has had.

In

In short the memorialist assures that he is of great use in a divisional office like this which is always overburdened with heavy work.

Another man, a process agent of the District Munsiff's Court, Berhampore, who passed the Middle School Examination in II Class, was exempted in 1893 and he now holds a post of Rs 40 in the Revenue Department. These two men belong to other departments and they were granted such Concessions which the memorialist has been aiming at for a long time.

The memorialist has a service of 10 years in this Department and during which he served so faithfully and assiduously that his superiors think very highly of him and have come tried to assist him in the way of getting him exempted.

The object of exemptions, seems to your humble memorialist, is to save and put into prosperity such officials as worked hard and intelligent and whose services cannot be dispensed with.

under the circumstances.

The Government may be pleased to encourage men of this stamp so that they may not be disheartened at their trials.

The memorialist therefore humbly prays your Lordship may not overlook his interests and may not come between him and his prospects.

The memorialist further begs that your Lordship will be pleased to peruse once more his former memorial and its enclosures (Copies enclosed for ready reference) and then pass such orders as your Lordship may deem proper.

For which act of benevolence and charity, he will ever feel grateful.

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble Servant.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a copy of letter from the Senior Assistant Collector R.C. no 795, Revenue, 97 dated $\frac{23}{30}$ December 1897 with copy of its enclosure, I have the honor to request that the Government will be pleased to exempt V. L. Narasimhamurti from the Examination rules up to a post of not exceeding Rs 20 per mensem, for the reasons given in the Supt Deputy Tahsil Dar's letter. — Plg N

2. In this connection I venture to submit herewith the memorial presented by D. Jaganmakhadas Waple-bud, in the Senior Assistant Collector's office

whose whose exemption was negatived in Government order No 257, Educational, dated 3rd May 1897 and to recommend that he may also be exempted from the Examination rules so far as to enable him to hold a post not exceeding Rs 20 per mensem for the seasons given in Mr Rice late Senior Assistant Collector's letter, Copy enclosed.

3. Both are hardworking and intelligent and have several times acted as clerks. They are reported to possess good knowledge of English and Telugu and their superiors appear to have been thoroughly satisfied with their work.

4. As it is found difficult to get passed Candidates for lower paid posts in this District, and as it is desirable to give encouragement to persons continuously working hard, I would strongly recommend that both V. L. Nava - Simhamurti and Dilli Jayanna Reddy be exempted from the Examination rules to the extent solicited as a special case.

5. Similar Concession was granted to Netheti Narasimhamurti a clerk of

FOR ORDERS.

The Collector of Gungam recommends that K. L. Varasimham and D. Jagannatha Rao, attached in the Sompel Dy. Tahsildar's Office and the Senior Asst. Collector's Office respectively may be exempted from the examination rules so far as enable them to hold a post on a not exceeding Rs 20 per mensem. Varasimham has passed the Sree Upper Primary Exam and Jagannatha Rao the middle school exam in the second class. The exemption of the former is recommended in consideration of his service as fan clerk (vide flag) and that of the latter as he has been useful in various ways in the Senior Asst Collector's Office & is thoroughly acquainted

It is submitted that this is rather an inadequate reason for exemption
