from the examination rules. The Sub-Collector states that he has seen the petitioners and that "he is a smart young man and well spoken of". I am of opinion that the prayer in the petition, cannot be granted. In somewhat analogous case, disposed of in G. O. No. 40 of the 22nd January 1896 Government, declined to comply with the request. In that case the petitioners had, in my opinion stronger grounds than the present petitioners as he was a Madras Matriculate and had passed several Special Tests.

I have the honour to be
