TO,

His Excellency Sir Arthur Elibank
Havelock G. C. M. G. G. C. I. E.
Governor and President in Council
FORT SAINT GEORGE,
MADRAS.

The humble petition of H. T. Narayanasami Iyer, 1st Class Process Writer, District Munsif's Court, Ambasamudram.

Most respectfully sheweth:—

1. That he holds a superior service of more than 13 years in this department and is drawing Rs 20 per mensem since 1889, in addition to his past services from 1st November 1884, as a Process Writer on Rs 14, and is now acting as Copyist Examiner in this Court.

2. That he passed the Middle School Examination in the 2nd Class, and also appeared once for the Matriculation Examination.

3. That in pursuance of the notification published in Fort Saint George Gazette dated 17th September 1895 Part I-B in page 400 "that public servants in superior appointments carrying Rs 15 per mensem or upwards may appear for Special Test Examinations for 1895 and 1896", he appeared for Translation Lower in 1895 and 1896 and Precise Writing Test in 1896.

4. That he humbly begs to submit that he has passed Precise Writing Test held in October 1896.

5. That now under the Article No. 8 published in Fort Saint George Gazette dated 15th June 1897 part I-B page 343 of "Government Examinations" it appears that special Test Examinations, except Revenue and Criminal Tests, Higher and Lower Grades shall be open to persons who have passed the Middle School Examination in the 1st class or the General Test Examination and have also been holding a permanent superior appointment on Rs 15 per mensem or upwards in public service continuously from 1st January 1897.

6. He put in a petition on the 25th June 1897 to the Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations whether he is eligible to appear for the ensuing Special Test Examinations by his having passed the Precise Writing Test and he got the following endorsement. "Petitioner is informed that, under the rules now in force, he is not eligible to appear for any of the Special Tests as he has not passed the Middle School Examination in the 1st Class".

7. In as much as the unpassed public servants in superior service have been once allowed to appear for the Special Test Examinations by the mercy of the Benign Government, it is nothing but just that those who have passed any of the Special Test Examinations under the notification and under the advantages given to them must be considered to be now exempt from the Examination Bar.

8. The petitioner hopes to pass the Translation and Civil Lower Grade in as much as he has passed the Precise Writing Test.

9. The petitioner therefore most humbly craves that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to permit him to appear for the Special Test Examinations under the advantages given to candidates as mentioned in para 5 above or to allow him at least to appear for the Translation and Civil Lower and do justice to the poor petitioner.

For which act of charity and benevolence, the poor petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

He humbly begs to remain,

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant,

District Munsif's Court
Ambasamudram
28th January 1898.

H. T. Narayanasami
Acting Examiner.

No 229.

A. D. Broadfoot Esquire,
District Judge, Simnully.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George
Madras.

(Submitted through the High Court)

Sir, I have the honour to submit herewith a petition by H. T. Narayanasami Aiyar, Scribe Writer (Rs 20) and Acting Examiner (Rs 20), of the District Munsif's Court, Ambasamudram.

2. He has been in service from 1st November 1884.

3. Under the Rules in force till recently, it appears that he was allowed to appear for the Special Test Examinations. So he did appear and has passed the Precise Writing Test.

But

But this will be of little use to him for promotion in the Munsif's Court if he is not allowed to go up for the Translation Lower and Civil Judicial Tests.

4. I inspected the District Munsif's Court of Ambasamudram recently and I found him to be a very intelligent clerk.

5. The Copyist's department of the Court which was not long ago in a very unsatisfactory state and which necessitated a special enquiry, has now under this Examiner's supervision been brought to good order. His immediate superiors have also considered him a deserving man.

I

6. I strongly recommend the petitioner's application for the favourable orders of Government.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant
^{to the Government}
District Judge.
