PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

Avargal
From M.R.Ry. G. Parameswaram Pillai, Egmore, Madras, dated 25th January 1898:—

I beg to forward herewith a copy of my book entitled "Representative Indians" published recently in London. I enclose also the opinion of a few papers, English and Indian, on the book. Should your Government consider my work deserving of encouragement, may I request you to patronise the publication either by prescribing it as a text book or introducing it as a prize book in High schools and Colleges, or in any other way your Government deems fit.

ORDER:—R No. 209, dated 16th February 1898.

The copy of the book entitled "Representative Indians" received with the letter read above will be retained for the Secretariat Library and M.R.Ry.G. Parameswaram Pillai Avargal will be requested to forward the bill for it to the Accountant-General.

2. The application for the introduction of the work as a text book or prize book in schools or colleges will be transferred to the Educational Department.
