SUBJECT.

Manual of Hydraulics

FOR ORDERS.

Hm.

A The "Manual of Hydraulics", a Govt copy right book, was compiled by Major Loue and on his suggestion 50 copies of it were forwarded to the India office for sale in 1890 - vide G.O. 797 Ed & 8th Dec. 1890.

The Registrar and Superintendent of Records, India office, recently intimated that all the fifty copies had been sold and suggested that a further supply of ten copies, if available, should be forwarded. The Registrar's letter was communicated to the D.P.O. for necessary action. vide G.O. no 54 Ed & 25th January 98

B I'm forwarding ten copies of the book the D.P.O. states that Major Loue has forwarded sent in a bill for Rs 25 and enquires from what source the cost is to be paid.

It will be noted that, with the ~~sanction~~ of the Govt of I. Major Lone has been permitted to publish and sell on his own account a second and revised edition of the manual of Hydraulics (vide G.O. no. 680 Ed & 16th Sept 1893) and that if Govt requires any copies of the second edition of the book, it must pay for them. But as, under orders of the Secy of State, all publications sent to the India Office for sale should be treated as if supplied for the use of the India Office and as no sale proceeds can be recovered, it is for orders whether ten copies of the manual should be purchased for money and transmitted to the India Office?

The D.P.I. has not suggested any source from which the cost of the books is to be paid nor is it clear where the money is to come from. It is suggested that, unless it is thought necessary for Govt to send the books, the India Office may be informed that all copies of the 2^d edition of the book belong to Major Lone & that Govt cannot send any. Major Lone may be asked to send the books on his own account. A.C. 3.3.98. H 15-3-98

We had told the India Office that the manuals so far as supply & sales is concerned is a private matter into which we cannot interfere. The 10 copies had been returned. It is for Major Lone to decide whether he will send them to England or not.
