FURTHER PAPERS.

G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

Under para. 2 of G.O. No. 57 Financial, dated 24th January 1898, casual leave should not be taken in continuations of the Christmas and Easter vacations. Much less therefore could it be taken in continuation of College vacations. As casual leave is not recognised by the Civil Service Regulations and as the five days' limit has been fixed by an executive order of Government, it is clear that Government has the power of extending the limit in exceptional cases.
