GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Diwan Bahadur V. KRISHNAMA CHARIAR, Registrar of Books, to the Director of Public Instruction, dated Madras, 2nd March 1898, No. 51.

I have the honour to forward, for transmission to Government, printed copies of the catalogue of books and periodicals received for registration during the fourth quarter of 1897.

2. The number of works registered during the quarter is 222 in all. Of these, 185 have been classed as books and 37 as periodicals.

3. According to linguistic classification, there are 54 works in English, 54 in Tamil, 70 in Telugu, 5 in Malayalam, 11 in Kanarese, 2 in Hindustani, 2 in Arabic, and 24 in Sanskrit, including those published in Grandha and Nagari characters.

4. About 23 per cent. of the registered works are designed for educational purposes.

5. As usual, brief notes on the contents of most of the works are entered in the column of remarks.

6. The accompanying statement contains extract of entries of copyright registration of 71 works, whose proprietors have secured their copyright, paying the usual fee, except in the case of 12 works registered free of charge in the name of Government. The last three entries in this extract refer to works received during the second quarter of 1894 and third quarter of 1897, but their copyright has only been registered during the last quarter of 1897.

1st Oct.	162	8vo ..	1st ..	550	Printed	1 0 0	P. Rāmakrishnaiya, Editor of Amudrita Grandha Chin-tamani, Madhvaspativari Street, Nellore.	An entertaining poem based on the romantic legend of Prince Chitrāngada as narrated in Brahmottara Puāna. This prince, in a yachting excursion on the deep waters of the Jumna, is drowned and driven down to the subterranean world leaving his young wife Simamani to bewail his loss as was foretold by astrologers, who, however, by her earnest devotion and prayers to Umāmahēvara (Siva and Parvati), is restored to life on this earth and conjugal felicity and prosperity once more. Copyright registered.
October.	650	Do. ..	1st ..	1,000	Do.	2 8 0		A complete edition of the Telugu Rāmāyana originally composed in verse by Bhāskara and other members of his family sets forth in a style susceptible of comprehension by the general reader the interesting and instructive story of the Rāmāyana. The publisher calls attention to the trouble and money expended by him in getting the old manuscript copies and previous editions having different readings, to the large paper and type and get up of this edition, and to the complete index as a means of rendering the poem useful alike to the young for a course of study and for standard reference to the general reader.
November	276	16mo..	1st ..	1,000	Do.	0 6 0		A concise exposition in polished Telugu prose of the contents of the celebrated sacred lay from the Mahā Bhārat and as a notable contribution to a difficult and little understood phase, and lofty temper and wisdom of Hindu Theosophy. It is printed on stout paper and in large type and is bound in a cloth case at a moderate price to satisfy the interest awakened in the subject among students and in the general reader in these days of doctrinal interest by recent lectures delivered by foreigners in English.
17th Oct.	26	12mo..	1st ..	1,000	Do.	0 2 0	J. Hanumanta Rao, Pleader, Chicaole, Ganjam District.
