The Board begs leave to submit an application for the exemption of Mr. Malcolm Henry Mortimer Lamb from the examination rules in view to his employment in the Salt, Abkari and Customs Department. He is a European, was educated in England and Belgium and has passed the examinations named in the margin.

He joined the Oriental Coffee Company Nelliampatty Hills, Cochin, in October 1894 as Assistant Superintendent and has been Superintendent of one of their their estates since November 1895.

 Being desirous of entering the Salt, & Abkari and Customs Department, he applied to Mr Willock who registered his name for employment in the Depart-ment. An extract of his remarks on the application is subjoined:—

" This application had better be registered. we want more Europeans in the Department and I think that the best course would be to give half the pucca vacancies to them until the proper proportion is reached. Mr.
 Lamb would do very well for the department I think "
