ducts to the Government of India, has applied for

FOR ORDERS.

We cannot spare him very well. He was away all last year, & should be was away & Dr. Bourne in charge (doing Museum duties as well as those of his professorship), Museum arrangements were kept very much at a stand still. Mr. T. is now preparing a monograph on wolverines which will do us great credit & be very useful. The Comparative Library is just beginning. If Mr. T. goes, I do not know who could be put in charge. He counteracts, we did not stand in his way, and he did be given the opportunity of accepting from what he has said before, I don't think he will accept.

20/3/98

The Govt of India asks whether Mr. Thurston can be spared to act for Dr. Watts during the latter's absence on furlough for eight months from May 1898. Mr. Thurston acted once before. If the Govt could spare him Mr. Thurston would be asked if he accepts the offer.

22/3/98 H. T. 17.3.98

I quite agree that we cannot spare Dr. Thurston, and I should say without reference to him. I believe Mr. T. does not wish to go, but does not want to say so.
