SUBJECT.

No sufficient cause for exemption has been shown. Submitting the memorial of H. Kanakasabai Mudali.

late Section-writer of Kalapa-nagar, in the North Arcot District.

Note. The applicants work as a copyist is well spoken of. Copyists are exempted from the Quaker rules; but the fact that copyists in Registration offices are styled clerks seems to stand in the way of the applicant getting a permanent appointment.

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE RIGHT HONORABLE

SIR ARTHUR ELIBANK HAVELOCK

G. C. M. G; G. C. I. E.,

GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

Through The Inspector General of Registration, Madras.

„ The Registrar of North Arcot.

„ The Sub-Registrar of Walajah.

*The humble petition of W. Kanakasabai
Mudali, residing at Walajahnagar,
North Arcot District.*

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH :—

That your Excellency's humble petitioner entered the Registration Department as a Section writer in the Sub-Registrar's Office, Walajah, about the beginning of 1891, and has since then been working in the Sub-Registrar's Offices at Walajah, Arkonam, Vellore and Arcot both as a Section writer and also as an acting clerk.

That the petitioner has by his untiring zeal, earnestness and application to his work, discharged his duties to the entire satisfaction of all the superiors under whom he worked, and won their approbation and golden opinions is evident from the copies of testimonials (hereto annexed) from the several Sub-Registrars.

The Inspecting Officer of the Department viz the District Registrar of North Arcot who inspected the Arkonam Sub-Registrar's Office twice while the petitioner was working there was favourably impressed with the petitioner's work and complimented him on the same.

The Honorable Dewan Bahadur Mr. Sreenivasa Raghava Aiyangar, the late Inspector-General of Registration, was also pleased with the petitioner's work as will be seen on a reference to the extracts of Inspection Notes, herewith submitted.

That although the petitioner has thus earned the good opinion of all his superiors by the excellence of his work, yet he could not be given a permanent post, as he has not passed the requisite Educational test.

The petitioner knows English, Tamil, and a little of Telugu, and is acquainted with all the details of the work of the Registration Department.

Your Excellency's petitioner is a very poor man with a large family including aged parents, who have seen better days, now depending upon him for support.

That the petitioner, owing to his father's failure and heavy losses in mercantile speculations, was compelled to abandon his studies at a time when he was about to prepare for the examination qualifying for appointments and called upon to eke out living.

In this state of utter destitution, the petitioner luckily succeeded in getting into the Registration Department as a Section writer and has by his unflagging zeal and diligence succeeded in obtaining temporary appointments in the above said four offices, for the past 6 years. But in accordance with the recent ruling of Government his prospects of getting a permanent appointment are marred to his most bitter and poignant disappointment.

Having been placed in this strange predicament the petitioner finds it utterly impracticable now in the midst of his incessant toils and despondency to devote any portion of his time to study for any Educational test, since study in his case means cessation from work and inevitable starvation not only to himself, but also to his whole family.

Being born of respectable parents and unable any longer to cope with difficulties brought on by poverty, Your Excellency's petitioner has ventured to approach your most august Excellency with the prayer that Your Excellency will, in consideration of all the circumstances of his hard case and his poverty if not of the record of his good work in the Registration Department for the past 6 years, be graciously pleased to extend unto him that heavenly blessing of mercy and in the exercise of Your Excellency's prerogative, order that he may be given the post of a clerk, in the Registration Department as a special case, and thus lay him and his large family under an eternal debt of gratitude.

For which act of charity and generosity Your Excellency's petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray,

And remain,

Ever Your Excellency's most humble
and obliged servant

TESTIMONIALS, &c.

I have known W. Kanakasabai Mudali for about 3 years as a temporary clerk of this office, during which period he has discharged the duties entrusted to him very satisfactorily. He is an intelligent young man and writes a very neat and that a fast hand in English, Tamil and Telugu. He would have been confirmed here had he been a passed candidate. As he is well acquainted with the work of Registration clerk I feel confident that he will be found very useful in any Sub-Registry Office.

SUB-REGISTRAR'S OFFICE, ARCOT,
18th January 1897.

W. Kanakasabai Mudali was Section Writer in this office on several occasions. He writes an excellent hand in English and Tamil. His conduct highly satisfactory. I have never found a young man so well behaved in my experience of 29 years in this Department. He could not get a permanent Gift in Registration Office being an unpassed man. I am very confident that when permanently employed he will be found very useful, intelligent and active.

Extracts from the progress report from the Sub-Registrar of Walajah to the Registrar of North Arcot dated 1st August 1896.

The temporary clerk has made a fair progress and I beg to report that most of the pages are torn and bits of torn out pages come out. The clerk has to handle with the book very carefully and he has to arrange the bits and place them in the appropriate places and then he has to copy. I am glad to report that but for this young man, the progress would have been very slow. He discharged his duty very satisfactorily and his patience in copying is admirable and this cannot be expected even from a passed candidate. I beg to add that even the fast writer would not be able to compete with this young man whose transcriptions are without a blot. He deserves all encouragement. If his work is personally inspected I beg to say you will endorse my opinion.

Extracts from the progress report from the Sub-Registrar of Walajah to the Registrar of North Arcot, dated 1st December 1896.

I beg to say that but for this temporary clerk W. Kanakasabai Mudali in whose hand writing this statement appears the recopying work would not have been so satisfactorily done. This man's ability is highly spoken of as a Registration clerk by many able Sub-Registrars in the District (i.e.) M. R. Ry. V. Seshachariar the present Sub-Registrar of Mount Road, M. R. Ry. V. C. Krishnama Chariar Sub-Registrar of Arcot, M. R. Ry. A. Venkatakanniah Sub-Registrar of Vellore and several others under whom this clerk served for long and short periods. I request the Registrar will be good enough to recommend this young man strongly to the Inspector General of Registration and confer on him a permanent appointment in consideration of his proved ability and excellent hand writing in three Languages.

To

The Registrar of North Arcot.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit herewith the attached memorial from W. Kanakasabai Mudali and to bring to your notice that the memorialist has, as a section-writer and an acting clerk, discharged the duties entrusted to him to the entire satisfaction of his superiors ^{in the several registration offices} where he served, as is evident from his testimonials.

2. On a vacancy occurring in any of the offices, the head of the office, in consideration of this young man's industry and zeal, could not but court his services. Although his services have thus been appreciated by the several Subregistrars and also by the Registrars and Inspectors-General of Registration during their tours of inspection, he has not been, I regret to say, fortunate enough to secure a permanent footing simply because he has not qualified himself by passing the necessary test.

3. He writes an excellent hand in English as well as Tamil and this is in itself a sine qua non recommendation for ^{his} enlistment in the Department. His knowledge of the details of work is certainly above the average, and his obedience to order, his anxiety to please his superiors and his willingness to work find no parallel.

4. My experience of 20 years in the Department has convinced me that to work with this promising young man of 23, hale and hearty as he is, is a pleasure and honour.

5. I beg leave to say that he deserves the kind consideration and mercy of His Excellency the Governor as one descended from a very respectable family now reduced to penury.

6. I would, therefore, request that in the above circumstances you will condescend to recommend him strongly to the notice of higher authorities for his exemption from passing the necessary educational test and thus to obtain for him a permanent footing in the Department.

I have etc.

Endorsement, T.No.107.

Submitted to the Inspector-General of Registration for favourable consideration and transmission to Government. The petitioner writes a very neat and fast hand without mistakes and is the sort of man that is required for the clerical staff in this Department. I entirely agree with the Subregistrar in his opinion of the petitioner. I beg therefore to strongly recommend that the petitioner may be exempted from passing the educational test required for a clerk's post.

Madras

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government with copies of the Registrar's and Sub-registrar's letters.

2. In his recent inspection of the Subregistry office at Walajanagar and Arcot, the undersigned had occasion to examine the work done by the applicant on several occasions on which he had acted in temporary vacancies and found that the work turned out compared very favourably with that of many permanent incumbents.

3. If the Government sees no objection, the applicant may be exempted from the operation of the examination rules so far as to allow of his being ^{appointed} as a clerk in registration offices on a salary not exceeding Rs 17-8-0.
