For Orders

Under the circumstances, submitted that the only thing that can be done is to release him by unconditional discharge under § 14 (a) of his Act or to direct the committee to find out some suitable person to whose care the boy may be released on license under § 18 (1). The first course seems the only practicable one as no one would want an epileptic as apprentice.

From

To

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

MADRAS.

SIR,

Viewing the present state of health of pupil Ramalingam, No. 378, who is subject to epileptic fits, I have the honour to state that I consider it necessary in the interests of the School and of the boy himself to ask you to be good enough to move Government to reconsider its order No. 491, dated 27th August 1897 passed in reference to that boy. I beg to point out in this connection that under Section 14(a) of Act VIII of 1897 Government has the power to discharge at any time any youthful offender from this School, and in the case of Ramalingam the exercise of that power, which I strongly recommend, is both expedient and needful. He now suffers from frequent attacks of epilepsy; and sometimes the attacks last from 4 to 5 minutes, and the inconvenience he thereby causes is great.

Owing to the limited staff at my disposal the attention which should be paid to other boys during their work or school hours, has frequently to be diverted to him during his fits; but what I fear much is that the boy may be drowned if he gets the fit while in water when performing his daily ablutions, and according to present arrangements the tank is the only place the boys have to bathe in.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Madanilany
Surgeon-Lt Col.
Superintendent.
