Enclosure No. 1

To letter No. 1250/30.3.98

From Inspector-General of Police.

Extract from the remarks passed by the District Magistrate, South Arcot in the Visitor's Book of the Tittangudy Police Station on 17th May 1897.

Visited the station to-day and found it very clean and tidy, arms and accoutrements neatly arranged and clean; crime is light in this division, the chief cases being House Breaking by night and thefts of property below Rs.5 in value. Detection is good and has improved since V. Doraiswami came as Inspector. He is doing good work. The Police and the local Magistracy are working in harmony, and in many respects this Division is a model to others in the district. I find there are 26 K.Ds. on the Register; of these 5 are in jail, the whereabouts of one is not known but the whereabouts of the remaining 20 are known. The Head Constable and 14 men here look smart. The shooting as gathered from the Target practice register is indifferent, the best shot apparently being Police constable No. 708 Vasudevan. Better shooting can scarcely be expected so long as the present policy of allowing only 5 rounds a quarter per man is continued. The Superintendent's last visit to this station was in March 1896.

Enclosure No. 2

To letter No. 1250 & 30-3-98

From Inspector-General of Police.

Office of the Superintendent of Police, South Arcot,
7th March 1898.

C.No.447/General.

From

G.H.Hunt, Esquire,

Ag. Superintendent of Police,

South Arcot District.

To

The Inspector-General of Police,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to report that under orders of the late Inspector-General, Vide., Chief Office Memorandum No.3844 dated 23rd October 1897 the probation of Inspector Doraiswami Mudali must now cease, as he has failed to pass the Precise-Test, unless Government is pleased to exempt him from passing.

2. This Inspector is one of the most useful Divisional Officers in my district and would be a serious loss to the service.

3. He has worked his way up from a constable which of itself is sufficient evidence of his ability and integrity. The late District Magistrate Mr. Stuart had the highest opinion of his work, I attach a copy of his latest remarks on Tittangudy Division of which Inspector Doraiswami Mudali has been in charge since February 1895.

4. The Deputy Inspector-General is well acquainted with this officer and will I feel sure support my recommendation.

5. I do not consider it necessary under these circumstances to describe the Inspector's services in detail, he has passed all other tests required, and the service cannot afford to lose so useful an officer merely because he has not succeeded in passing a comparatively unimportant examination and I may add that though he has failed, he expresses himself very well in his reports and is anything but "long-worded".

I have &c.,

(Signed) G.H. Hunt,

Ag. Supt. of Police.

C.No. 563 of 1898.

Forwarded.

I have a very good opinion of this Probationary Inspector and I should be exceedingly sorry to see him compelled to revert to an inferior position. He has done very good work in Tittangudy Division which fell into disorder under his predecessor who has been retired on an invalid pension.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES. 3.

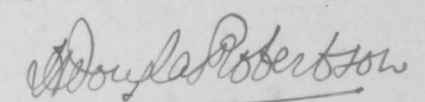

Adverting to G.O. No. 849, Educational, dated 28th October 1895 in which Probationary Inspector V. Doraiswami Mudali of South Arcot was exempted from passing the Preci-writing Test until the results of the examination held in October 1897 were known, I have the honour to state that he failed in the examination. The reports on his working, however, have been uniformly satisfactory and the Superintendent, the Deputy Inspector-General and the District Magistrate have a very good opinion of him. He has passed the other Tests, viz., the Criminal Lower and the Departmental Test and has 13 years' Police service. Both the Deputy Inspector-General and the District Superintendent of Police now recommend him for permanent exemption from passing the Preci-writing Test. I submit copies of the Superintendent's letter and of its enclosure and of the Deputy Inspector-General's remarks thereon and recommend that the exemption asked for may be granted.

2. A similar concession was granted to Inspector T. Perumallayya Nayudu of Nellore in G.O. No. 370, Educational, dated 14th November 1895.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Ag. Inspector-General of Police.
