Dated Chahapur 17th March 1898.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that candidates who have passed the Middle School or Lower Secondary Examination were allowed to be sent for training as medical pupils till 1st January 1895, from which date the concession was withdrawn and it was ruled that only such men as have passed the Matriculation Examination should be sent up. Since then not a single application has been received from any candidate and as a result no candidates were sent for training by this District Board. In this District the want of passed candidates is ^{keenly} felt and temporary posts in almost all public offices are filled with unpassed hands to
