FORT ST. GEORGE,

Accountant-General's Office,

No. 1536

From

J. Hesketh Biggs Esq.

ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

SIR,

With reference to para: 2 of Government Order A No 213 dated the 29th of March 1898 enquiring whether there is any objection to the Director of Public Instruction being empowered to sanction the purchase of diary books not costing over Rs 1-12-0 each, I have the honour to report that diary books have hitherto been treated as falling under the class "Books, periodicals &c" referred to in article 98(e) of the Civil Account Code and their purchase objected to for want of sanction of Government.

I am, however, on further consideration inclined to think that they should rather be considered as articles of Stationery dealt with under article 98 (f) of the Code. The Superintendent of Stationery may be asked therefore to arrange for their supply.

In these circumstances, and as articles of Stationery which are absolutely necessary and which are not usually supplied by the Stationery Office, can be purchased at the discretion of Heads of departments, the delegation of the power of sanction now asked for by the Director of Public Instruction does not seem necessary.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
W. H. B. P.
Accountant General.
