Resolution

The Board begs to submit for the approval of Government an application for the exemption from the examination rules of Mr. R. H. Alan Johnston the son of J. C. Johnston Esquire District Engineer Kurnool. This Candidate is 21 years old and has received a good education in the Modern School at Bedford. He passed recently the examination for the opium department in Calcutta but was not one of the first three who alone obtained appointments. The Commissioner would be willing to give him a trial as an Assistant Inspector subject to his obtaining the exemption now asked for if there were a vacancy.
