16TH APRIL 1887, No. 204, EDUCATIONAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From W. H. WILSON, Esq., Registrar of the University of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 21st February 1887, No. 654.

In submitting, for the consideration of Government, the accompanying correspondence relating to the proposed reorganization of the Registrar's office establishment, I have the honor to point out that the objection raised by the Accountant-General to any revision of salaries being made without the previous sanction of Government is one which would carry greater weight if the Syndicate's proposals involved any increase of expenditure, or if the salaries of University officials were paid out of public funds. But an actual reduction of expenditure is contemplated, and the University has for some years ceased to be financially dependent upon Government. Not only is it a self-supporting institution, but its accumulated savings now amount to Rs. 40,000—a sum which will probably be considerably increased when the accounts for the current year are made up.

2. Under these circumstances, I respectfully submit that the close control over the expenditure of the University, which Government have hitherto exercised, is no longer necessary, and might, in future, be confined to the submission of the annual statement of accounts, minor matters, such as that upon which I now have the honor to address you, being left to the discretion of the Syndicate.

3. As the office staff is at present very much overworked to the detriment of the discharge of University business, I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to give the Syndicate's proposals their early and favorable consideration.

ENCLOSURES.

From W. H. WILSON, Esq., Registrar of the University of Madras, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 4th February 1887, No. 588.

I have the honor to inform you that the Syndicate have resolved to reorganize the Registrar's office establishment, and propose that, in future, it shall consist of the following:—

							Minimum.	Maximum.
Office Manager	..	..	..	..	..	..	120	150
Head Clerk	..	..	..	..	..	..	80	100
Second do.	..	..	..	..	..	..	50	70
Third do.	..	..	..	..	..	..	40	40
Fourth do.	..	..	..	..	..	..	30	30
Total	..	..	..	..	..	..	320	390

2. The salaries to rise to the maximum by equal annual increments extending over five years. The menial establishment it is proposed to reorganize in the following manner:—

								RS.	A.	P.
Head Peon	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	9	0	0
Three Peons, at Rs. 7-8-0 each	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	22	8	0
Two Night Peons, at Rs. 3-8-0 each	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	7	0	0
Sweeper for roof	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	7	0	0
Two Sweepers, at Rs. 5 each	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	13	8	0
One Sweeper, at „ 3-8-0	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	6	0	0
Gardener	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	6	0	0

The total minimum monthly expenditure will thus be Rs. 385 and the maximum Rs. 455.

3. Up to the 15th ultimo, the date on which the Assistant Registrar resigned office, the clerical establishment involved a monthly expenditure of Rs. 420, but this amount was subject to an increase of Rs. 50 per mensem on that officer attaining his maximum salary. The menial establishment costs at present Rs. 35 per mensem, making a total maximum of Rs. 505 per mensem, and a minimum of Rs. 100 per mensem less.

4. The immediate saving consequently amounts to Rs. 70 per mensem, and the eventual saving, supposing all the proposed establishment to have attained to their maximum salaries, to Rs. 50 per mensem.

5. The Syndicate are anxious that immediate steps should be taken to reorganize the office in the manner above described, and I therefore have the honor to request you will inform me at your earliest convenience whether there will be any objection to these salaries being passed. Should there be any objection, Government will be requested to sanction the proposed arrangement.

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Registrar of the University of Madras, dated Fort St. George, 5th February 1887, No. 357.

With reference to your letter, No. 588, dated the 4th February 1887, I have the honor to state that the proposals for the reorganization of your office establishment should, it seems to me, be submitted for the approval of Government, inasmuch as they involve the abolition of the appointment of Assistant Registrar, an appointment made under bye-laws which were submitted by the Syndicate for the approval of Government, and were approved by Government in their order, No. 623, Educational, dated 4th October 1884.

From W. H. WILSON, Esq., Registrar of the University of Madras, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 8th February 1887, No. 597.

In reply to your letter, No. 357, dated 5th February 1887, I have the honor to inform you that the proposals communicated in my letter, No. 588, dated 4th idem, do not necessarily entail an abolition of the office of Assistant Registrar.

2. The Syndicate, while not considering it desirable at present to fill up the vacancy created by the resignation of the late incumbent of the post, wish the bye-laws relating to the office to remain unaltered, until they are able to judge by experience whether the proposed arrangements secure greater efficiency, and thus to retain the power of appointing another person to the office of Assistant Registrar should they consider it desirable at any time to do so.

3. I trust this explanation will meet your objections, and that you will pass the salary bills of the proposed office establishment from the 1st proximo.

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Registrar of the University of Madras, dated Fort St. George, 14th February 1887, No. 446.

With reference to your letter, No. 597, dated the 8th February 1887, I have the honor to

No. 321, Educational,	dated 14th August	1876.
" 368	" " 31st July	1878.
" 117	" " 20th April	1881.
" 296	" " 2nd Oct.	1882.
" 623	" " 4th "	1884.

state that all additions and alterations to your establishment, since the foundation of the University, have been sanctioned by the Government of Madras, as will be seen on a reference to the orders noted in the margin. I am of opinion therefore that the present proposals for the reorganization of your establishment should likewise be reported to Government for approval with reference to Section XV of the Madras University Act No. XXVII of 1857, and paragraph 3 of your letter, No. 103, dated 13th September 1882, recorded in G.O., No. 296, Educational, dated 2nd October 1882.

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 25th March 1887, No. I.A.E.-327.

With reference to your memorandum, No. 132, dated 18th March 1887, inquiring whether the service of the establishment of the Registrar of the University of Madras qualifies for pension, I have the honor to state that, as the service of the members employed on that establishment is paid from the University Fee Fund, which is an excluded Local Fund, administered by the Senate of the University subject only to a general superintendence on the part of Government, it does not qualify for pension.

But there appears to be no objection to the Syndicate being allowed to grant pensions to the clerks and servants of the University from the University Fee Fund, under the general rules contained in the Civil Pension Code—vide section 85 of that code.

ORDER—dated 16th April 1887, No. 204, Educational.

The revision of establishment proposed in the Registrar's letter is sanctioned, but having regard to the terms of Section XV of Act No. XXVII of 1857, His Excellency the Governor in Council is unable to accept the recommendation that the control of the Government over the University expenditure should in future be confined to requiring the submission of an annual statement of the accounts.
