For Orders

Submitted that ^{exemption} may be sanctioned.
Apart from the fact of Mr. McInnes' experience at the Bengal U.S. Club, great weight attaches to Col. H. H. Hughes Hallett's recommendation as he is not a person to give such a testimonial without consideration and from an authority such as he is an expression of favourable opinion carries great weight

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS,

Dated ~~Octacanth~~ the 26th April 1898.

From

A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A., J.C.S.,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS,

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.

SIR,

Enclosures./.

I have the honour to request that the Government may be pleased to exempt from the Educational rules, with a view to employment in this Department, Mr. W. McInnes. Mr. McInnes came to India in 1878 as a Serjeant in the 2nd Battalion 13th P.A.L.I.. He purchased his discharge in 1881 in order to take up the Stewardship of the United Service Club, Calcutta, and he remained there for 7 years. He left, at his own request, to take up the management of the Eden Sanitarium, Darjeeling, and after 3 years in that post, he started a Hotel in Darjeeling and lost his savings therein. He then entered the Jail Department of the Central Provinces, and rose to the rank of Jailor but was forced to resign, being unable to furnish the required security. Since then he has been doing Plague duty. His present age is 39 years. A copy of his Testimonials (to be kindly returned) is enclosed, and from the remarks of Col Hughes Hallett, printed therein, it will be seen that Mr. McInnes served with credit in the Jail Department of the Central Provinces and is a man of good education and character. He appears likely to be a very suitable recruit for Jail work in this Presidency, and he has been temporarily posted as Deputy Jailor of the Trichinopoly Central Jail to fill a vacancy which occurred suddenly through the suspension of another officer. Mr. Shubrick writes of Mr. McInnes:—

"He knows a lot about ~~that~~ Dairy & also about wool-work.
I think you will find he is an acquisition".

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. G. Cardew
