TESTIMONIALS

OF INSPECTOR ABDUS SALAM.

Inspector ABDUS SALAM has received a superior education. He has performed his duties with zeal and ability. I trust he will rise in the Force.

(Signed) W. ROBERTSON,

Superintendent of Police,

2-12-70.

Godavery District.

I have a high opinion of him.

(Signed) D. HEMING,

Superintendent of Police,

13-5-71.

Godavery District.

Inspector ABDUS SALAM is probably the best educated Inspector we have in this District. He is able and intelligent, and makes a very good Police Officer. His character and conduct are good, I have high opinion of him.

He was chosen to proceed to the Imperial Assemblage at Delhi on 1st January 1877. He did his duty with the Police there, to my own personal knowledge, exceedingly well, and received high encomiums from the Officers of the Punjab Police. He is now transferred as 2nd Class Inspector to Madras.

(Signed) C. A. FORBES,

Superintendent of Police,

Godavery District.

Has shown himself a good and intelligent Officer and given me much satisfaction.

(Signed) W. S. DREVER,
Commissioner of Police,
Madras City.

A most intelligent, painstaking, and trustworthy Officer.

(Signed) W. O. SWANSTON,
Ag. Commissioner of Police,
Madras City.

Extract of a D. O. letter from MAJOR F. G. STEUART, Superintendent of Police, Raipur District, Central Provinces, to Lieut. D. Heming, Superintendent of Police, Godavery District, regarding a Wahabee Moulvie, named Ahmed Ullah Khan.

* * *

"The report is an exceedingly interesting and well written one, and I envy your having an Inspector who can write so well and clearly. The information is exceedingly valuable, being as yet the only direct evidence I have been able to get that AHMED ULLAH did preach treason.

"We have him safe in inside our gail, and are waiting further news regarding him from Mr. Reilly, the Officer specially deputed by the Bengal Government to inquire into the great Wahabee plot, and now thank you and ABDUS Salam."

I certify that MOHAMMAD ABDUS SALAM was employed as Moonshi of the 21st Regiment, N. I., from 1862 till 1868; he left in the latter year, to take employment as an Inspector of Police at Rajahmundry. During the above period he gave entire satisfaction in the performance of his duties as a Regimental Moonshi. I have known him from his boyhood; he is the son of the late JAFFER HREEF, author of the "Qanooni-Islam," who was for many years Moonshi of the 49th and subsequently of the 21st Regiment.

He was educated in the English school of the latter, and has done his teacher very great credit, for I have seldom known a native of this country express himself both orally and in writing, with greater ease and fluency than he does. I believe him to be an energetic, hard working, and at the same time, painstaking man in whom much confidence may be placed. I trust he may obtain speedy advancement in his present employment.

I now give him this testimonial in place of one I gave him when he left the Regiment in 1868, and which has been accidentally destroyed.

(Signed) W. DOUGLAS, Lieut.-Col.,
21st Regiment, N. I.

BELLARY,

Inspector ABDUS SALAM has been up here during the Imperial Assemblage as one of the Inspectors in charge of the Camp of His Grace the Governor of Madras: during the time he has been under my orders, he has done his duties well and cheerfully.

Asst. Military Secretary.

From The Acting Deputy Inspector-General of Police,
To Northern Range;
The Inspector-General of Police,

SIR,

I have the honor to forward for your information a very able and complete report submitted by Inspector ABDUS SALAM of the Godavery District, whom I deputed to accompany a gang of Heratees, which passed through a small portion of this District on their way from Guuntoor to Bhadrachellam.

Inspector ABDUS SALAM being a Mohamedan and a good Persian and Hindustani scholar, was able to converse freely with the Heratees in their own language; the information thus obtained about this predatory tribe is most valuable.

I have, &c.,

making it impossible for him to discharge
the heavy domestic obligations entailed his father's death, which reduces the family

State verging on distress.

That your memorialist desires aiding those who look up to him, as the head of the household would secure a position in the Public Service.

That your memorialist knowing that were he in order to do so, to wait until he had passed the prescribed tests, it would intake a loss of much valuable time, and involve a pecuniary expenditure. Which he under existing circumstances, cannot afford, beg respectfully to pray for exemption from the Upper Secondary Examination, an indulgence that enable him at once to join in the police department. And one which your memorialist ventures to hope may graciously be, enclosed by your memorialist to your Excellency, in view of the numerous precedents established during the time of your predecessor Lord Wenlock, and more especially of the longest faithful service of your memorialist's father's, extending a period of 29 years and 3 months. My dear Tremenheere,

On receipt of your D.O. about Abdul Allam I asked Robertson to look him over and I now enclose his report on him, and a letter from Agar.

I told him that I could not recommend him to Government for exemption.
He asked he may be given a Clerk's place in my office, but being unpassed, he could not be taken in as such.

Judging from my interview with him, & his own memorial, which is full of mistakes, I shd say he was not very sharp, & certainly not fit for anything higher than a Head Postoffice.

Benj, however, a Mahomedan & the son of a deceased Police

Inspector, who did exceptionally good work, got slight praise & placed to receipt him from passing Upper Secondary. They could make him eligible for a clerk post on Rs 15 &
expends.
