Through
The Principal,

The humble Memorial of Sergeant W. H.
Goddard, Instructor in Surveying and Drawing, College of Engineering sheweth:—

That in the Provincial Service Scheme, published in the Fort St. George Gazette, your Memorialist is assigned a position such that he cannot possibly accept.

2. His present pay and allowances amount to about Rs. 363 per mensem, made up as follows:—

Pay of Appointment as Instructor in Surveying and Drawing } Rs. 300-0-0 (200-20-300)

Pay as Superintendent of Military
Students. } 28-0-0 (20-2-40)

Exchange Compensation Allowance 35-4-7.

Total Rupees. 363-4-7.

3. Assuming that Exchange Compensation Allowance will average 10 per cent, his pay will be increasing by more than Rs. 2 yearly for

the next six years. Your Memorialist's average pay for the next six years will be Rs. 370 per mensem.

4. The position assigned to him in the new Scheme is 8th Class, 5th Rank, pay Rs. 300. In order to assume this position, he must take his discharge from the Army. This action would deprive him of his appointment as Superintendent of Military Students and involve a loss of Rs. 34 per mensem. Then as a Government Servant in the Provincial Service he would draw no Exchange Compensation Allowance and thereby lose about Rs. 36 per mensem. A total loss of Rs. 70 per mensem.

5. Allowing for the quickest possible promotion on the new scheme - not providing for any new man from outside being brought in and placed above him, as is possible, and your Memorialist believes probable - for five years he will be losing Rs. 70 per mensem, a loss of Rs. 4200; then for two years he will be losing Rs. 20 per mensem, a further loss of Rs. 480; making a total loss of Rs. 4680 in the seven years. Then for one year he will gain Rs. 30 per mensem, a gain of Rs. 360: in the next year year he will gain Rs. 80 per mensem, a further gain of Rs. 960: in the next two years and two months he will gain Rs. 130 per mensem, a still further gain of Rs. 3360: that is, a total gain of Rs. 4680. Therefore it will be nine years and two months before your Memorialist will get any increase in pay.

6. In the first five years he will have to suffer a reduction of pay of Rs. 70 a month, and in the next two years a reduction of Rs. 20 a month. All these seven years he will have the same necessary expenses in keeping up his position, increased expenditure in educating his children, and additional expenditure in premiums for insuring against the loss of Widow's Pension consequent on leaving the Army. In addition, he would lose a free passage home and back when going on furlough. And your Memorialist would have to give up the prospect of a sterling pension of £ 216 per annum for that of a silver pension of not more than Rs. 250 per mensem.

7. From the foregoing c
Memorialist is fo

discharge from the Army. Consequently, he has no position in the New Scheme.

8. Your Memorialist hoped that the industry he has shown, and the ability with which he has helped, and is still helping, to bring the College through a most trying time, would have secured him substantial, if not extraordinary promotion when the reorganisation of the Educational Department was taken in hand.

9. It was with these hopes that your Memorialist has remained on in the Educational Department instead of going back to the Public Works Department, on which he has a lien, and to which, if no adequate inducement is held out, he will have to return.

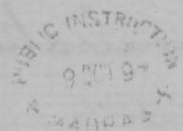

10. Your Memorialist prays that his appointment in the College of Engineering may be made special, and that his pay may be increased from time to time, so as to equate his position with what it would be in the Public Works Department.

Your Memorialist begs to remain,
Sir
your most obedient servant

To

The Director of Public Instruction,

Madras.

Sir,

Referring to your endorsement No 14229 dated 20th December 1897 on G.O.Educational No 755 dated 13th idem, I have the honour to report that Sergeant Goddard is willing to remain in the Educational Department provided he can remain in the Army and receive promotion and consequent increase of pay with his contemporaries. These provisos were specified in paragraph 10 of his memorial submitted with my No 620/C dated 3th October 1897.

2. His contemporaries may be reckoned as those of the Public Works Department or those of the Educational Department as Government may be pleased to decide. If of the latter, Sergeant Goddard might be bracketted with the officer who now stands next below him on the Provincial Service List.

3. I understand that the conditions of Service of the Instructors in Engineering and in Surveying and Drawing which are now approved by Government are applicable only to future incumbents and not to the present instructors. Both Sergeants Goddard and Reynolds feel unable as stated in my No 1209/C dated 6th December 1897 paragraph 4 to accept a five-year period.

4. The conditions mentioned by Sergeant Goddard are, I consider, reasonable ones. In paragraph 2 of the Order Government infers that "Sergeant Goddard is willing to remain in his present pay provided that his joining the Educational Department does not necessitate his leaving the Army." It would obviously not be reasonable to expect a man of twelve years' service to remain in his "present pay" for the rest of his service; so I conclude that the further condition now specified is not inconsistent with the intentions of Government in the matter.

5. If no prospects of promotion in the future can be held out, Sergeant Goddard must of course revert to the Public Works Department, but he would nevertheless be willing to continue to serve for one year at the College on his present pay and allowances.

6. I would add that Sergeant Goddard who has hitherto been regarded as permanently attached to the College, has always done first-rate work. He has been repeatedly commended by me in the annual reports. His removal would cause a great loss; and I ~~am~~ earnestly trust that it may be found possible to meet his reasonable claims.

7. In paragraph 3 of the Order Government says that the condition (there specified) of Sergeant Reynolds' extension of service for one year cannot be agreed to. I think that there has been some misapprehension regarding the condition. What Sergeant Reynolds stated was (vide my No 620/C dated 3th October 1897 paragraph 14 and No 1209/C dated 6th December 1897 paragraph 6) that he would be willing to remain in the College for another year, if his pay were raised to Rs. 320 in order that time might be given for the consideration of the proposals made in the earlier of the two letters above referred to. I am not aware whether those proposals have actually been placed before Government or not.

8. I do not feel quite clear as to the meaning of paragraph 3 ^{letter} of your No 15735 dated 10th December to Government. One of the terms of the Chief Engineer's proposal is that the (future) incumbents are to receive the pay that they would receive in the Public Works Department if stationed at Madras. This condition appears to fix their pay absolutely and the necessity for your third paragraph is not apparent.

I have &c,

(Sd) H.D. Love, Major R.E.

~~HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.~~

Sergeant Goddard, Instruction in neering.

FOR ORDERS.

Reference is requested to G.O.
No. 755 Educl.d/ 18th December 97 flag D
and the note for orders therein.

In para 2 of that G.O. the D.P.I.
was asked to report whether the presumption was correct that if the Instruc-torships in the College of Engineering were made special appointments Sergeant Goddard would not be obliged to sever his connection with the army and to state whether he would elect to remain in the Educl. Dept.

In reply to this the D.P.I. reported " that Sergeant Goddard is willing to remain in the Educl. Dept.
provided he can remain in the Army & receive promotion & consequent increase of pay with his contemporaries" As the D.P.I. did not state what necessitated Sergeant Goddard leaving the Army & what should be done to prevent it; he was again requested to report on these points; In reply he states that "Sergeant Goddard seems to apprehend that if he is confirmed in the Provincial

Provincial Educational Service he will be held to have ~~served~~ ^{severed} his connection with the Army and with it to have lost the advantages of exchange compensation allowance and a sterling pension. But if his connection with the army is continued and he be considered to hold the Educl. appointment sub-pro-tem the difficulty will be obviated. G.O.No.755 Educl.d/18th Dec. 97 is intended to effect this"

Flag O

The conditions of the Prov. Educl. Service do not differ from those of the Upper Subordinate service, Scholastic Branch, which included the two Instructorships in the College of Engineering, before the recent reorganization, and in which Sergeant Goddard held a permanent appointment. Sergeant Goddard's fear that his confirmation in the Prov. Educl. Service will necessitate his ~~serving~~ ^{severing} his connection with the Army is therefore groundless. His confirmation in the Prov. Service, just as his confirmation in the Upper Subordinate Service, will not necessitate his leaving the army. Any how he may be regarded as holding the appointment sub-pro-tem. There is no objection to the adoption of this course.

As regards Sergeant Goddard's promotion in the Educl. Dept. there is no objection to his getting promotion as vacancies occur in the Prov. Educl. service. The two Instructorships in the College of Engineering were included in the Upper Subordinate Service and afterwards in the Prov. Service specially with a view to enable the incumbents of the posts to receive higher pay than Rs.300 to which they were restricted before 1891, vide para 2 of D.P.I.'s letter No.11963 dated 28th October 1897 under cover of G.O.755/18-12-97 flag A

The question of Sergeant Goddard remaining ⁱⁿ the Educl. Dept. therefore turns upon the question whether he will be entitled to exchange compensation allowance in the Educl. Dept. Officers of the Prov. Educl. Service are not ordinarily entitled to the allowance; but in the list recently furnished to the Finl. Dept. of offices in the Educl. Dept. entitled to exchange compensation allowance, the two Instructorships in the College of Engineering have been included with the remark that they should be held by European Officers of the P.W.D. who are lent to the Educl. Dept. for a ~~year~~ term of years.

If this recommendation is accepted by the Govt. of India, Sergeant Goddard and other European Officers of the P.W.D. who may be appointed Instructors in the College of Engineering will get exchange compensation allowance.

The Govt. does not see that Sergeant Goddard's confirmation in the Provincial Educl. Service will necessitate his leaving the Army; but if it does, there is no objection to permitting him to hold his appointment sub-pro-tem.

2. As regards Sergeant Goddard's further promotion, it is observed that there is no bar to his getting it as vacancies occur in the Provincial Service.

3. The Govt. has recently recommended the inclusion of the two Instructorships in the College of Engineering in the list of offices in the Educl.
