OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR,
ASTOR LIBRARY BUILDING, 40 LAFAYETTE PLACE.

New York March 29, 1898

The Hon., the Governor, Government House, Madras, India.

Sir:-

The New York Public Library, -- Astor, Lenox and Tilden Foundations, -- is now one of the most important reference libraries in the United States, containing over 400,000 volumes, and it is desired to make it as complete as possible in everything pertaining to the history of the various governments, for the benefit of the many historians and scholars who make use of it.

With this object in view, I have the honor to request that we may be furnished with a copy of the "Catalogue of books printed in the Madras Presidency," being the supplement to the Fort St. George Gazette. In exchange I should be pleased to forward to you, each month as issued, a copy of our "Bulletin"

Packages for this Library may be sent, addressed as above, through the agents of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.

Trusting that this favor, - which will be highly appreciated, - may be granted in view of the public utility which it is intended to serve, I remain,

Very respectfully,

John Billings
Director

My dear Brundel,

His Excellency wishes me to send this to you for disposal. He does not know if it would break any recognised rule or custom to accede to the request contained in it; but, if not, he thinks that it might be acceded to.
