EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., No. 649, Educational, dated 17th November 1897.

READ—also the following paper :—

From R. NATHAN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India. Home Department (Examinations), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, dated Simla, 14th May 1898, No. 190.

In continuation of the letter from this department, No. 65, dated the 15th February last, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of Madras, a copy of the despatches noted in the margin regarding the grant of honoraria of Rs. 1,366 and Rs. 1,142-12-0, respectively, to Messrs. Ashpitel and Scovell for conducting the final examinations of the College of Engineers, Madras.

2. The Governor-General in Council will be glad to be favoured with an expression of the opinion of the Governor in Council on the question raised in paragraph 2 of the Secretary of State's despatch, whether the fees payable by the candidates should not be increased.

ENCLOSURES.

DESPATCH from the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, Finance and Commerce Department (Salaries, Establishments, &c.—Bonuses and Honoraria), to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Calcutta, 3rd February 1898, No. 34.

We have the honour to forward, for your Lordship's information, copy of a letter, No. 650, dated the 17th November 1897, from the Government of Madras regarding the grant of honoraria of Rs. 1,366 to Mr. F. W. Ashpitel, Executive Engineer, Lighthouse Division, and of Rs. 1,142-12-0 to Mr. C. T. R. Scovell, Officiating Deputy Consulting Engineer for Railways, Madras, for conducting the final examinations of the College of Engineers, Madras.

2. The scale of remuneration to be awarded to the members constituting the Board of Examiners in the examinations in question has been fixed by the Madras Government after careful consideration, and it is lower than the scale of fees fixed for the university examinations. In the present case the net cost to Government is Rs. 473-4-0, the amount by which the fees collected from the candidates fall short of the sums payable under the scale to the examiners.

3. In the circumstances we have the honour, under the provisions of article 89 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations, to request your Lordship's sanction to the payment of the proposed sums to Messrs. Ashpitel and Scovell.

DESPATCH from the Right Honourable Lord GEORGE HAMILTON, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 24th March 1898, No. 39, Public.

Having considered in Council your Government's Financial letter No. 34, dated 3rd of February last, I sanction the grant of honoraria of Rs. 1,366 and Rupees 1,142-12-0, respectively, to Messrs. Ashpitel and Scovell for conducting the final examinations of the College of Engineers, Madras.

2. In the circumstances referred to in the second paragraph of your letter, it may be desirable to consider whether the fees payable by the candidates should be increased.

ORDER—No. 349, Educational, dated 11th June 1898.

Communicated to the Director of Public Instruction and the Accountant-General.

2. The Director of Public Instruction will be requested to report on the question of raising the fees payable by the candidates.
