SUBJECT

Requesting that Government will be pleased to sanction
the examination of
Mr. J. W. Coombes,
Ag. 1st Assistant,
Madrasa-e-Azam
in Hindustan by the High Proficiency test to be held in July 1898 at all. ~~From~~ ²⁷⁴ ~~enough~~, Rule 33(i) of the rules in appendix to G.O. No. 274 Public, of 15.9.96 requires that the "sanction of Govt. shall be obtained for the appearance of an officer for examination for a reward". But those rules do not apply, as stated in the preamble (rule 1) to the Appendix in that G.O., to officers of the Educational Dept. to whom G.O. 573, Educational, of 15 Sep. 1896 does apply. In the Educational order, however, no sanction of Govt. for admitting a candidate to a reward examination is necessary: at least there is no rule which provides for such sanction. It would appear: that it is for the S.P.D. & the President, Board of Examiners, to satisfy themselves as to whether a particular candidate from the Edl Dept fulfils the conditions laid down in the Edl. order refd. to above and that no sanction of Govt. would seem to be necessary.

H 6698 Part i of G.O. 274 Pub. of 15.9.96 Key B does not apply to officers, but Part iii of the same G.O. it is submitted may be held to apply to all officers who pass for a reward (rule 39) - or who apply to appear (rule 33(i)).
