Exemption of G. Ramayya
Store-keeper, Bellary Division

Please see the previous
note at P in G.O. no. 137 Ed
8.2nd March 1898.

A reconsideration of that G.O.
is requested & the following further grounds are urged:-
(1) The value of stores in charge
of Ramayya having increased,
a higher security has to be obtained from him. It is then fore necessary to increase his pay so as to cover the interest on the addl. security.

(2) The ordinary examination
^{applicable to clerks} rules should not be applied to the post of store-keeper.

(3) In view of Ramayya's thorough practical knowledge & experience
in his work, the prescribed tests
may be dispensed with under the Papers to be read in Proceedings:—

his

No. 397 of 4-7-98

Secy

In view of the exceptional nature of the case, the exemption from the ~~exam~~ rules granted to G. Ramayya will be extended so as to cover a pay of Rs 100 per mensem. This concession is however ^{to him} personal and must not be regarded as a precedent.

the spirit of art 51, ch II of Vol I of the P.W.D. Code.

(4) The grant of exemption to Ramayya will not create an inconvenient precedent.

It may be noted that Ramayya has already been exempted up to Rs 50 & what is now wanted is to extend it to Rs 100.

Mrs Belwinton, the Chief Engineer strongly supports the recommendation of the local officers.

^{7/16-6-98} Note. The 'further grounds' now urged for the exemption of G. Ramiah Storekeeper Bellary from the ^{in the main} exam rules seem to have been advanced by Mr. Clerk when the matter came up for consideration before. It was then decided in G.O. No. 137.87. dated 2nd March 1898 that no sufficient cause for exemption had been shown.

It is submitted that no case has been made out for reconsidering that decision, unless it is considered that the examination rules applicable to clerks should not be equally applied to storekeepers (please see para 5 of the Current)

at 10.6.98

Considering the exceptional nature of the case I think that the exemption sought in favour of G. Ramiah may be granted. It ^{is} however personal to him and must not be regarded as a precedent.
