Communicating to the Director of Public Instruction, with remarks, despatch from the Secretary of State for India sanctioning, as a very special case, the deputation to England of —, Acting First Assistant, Madrasa-i-Azam, on half-pay for two years with a view to his taking a course at South Kensington in technical subjects.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Despatch from the Right Hon'ble Lord GEORGE HAMILTON, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 26th May 1898, Public (Educational), No. 2.

Having considered in Council your Excellency's letter, dated the 24th of March, No. 2 (Educational), I sanction, as a very special case, your proposal that Mr. J. W. Coombes, the Acting First Assistant in the Government Madrasa-i-Azam, may be deputed to England on half-pay for two years, with a view to his taking a course at South Kensington in technical subjects, such absence counting as service for pension.

2. This permission is granted on the condition that Mr. Coombes agrees to serve in the Educational Department for at least five years after his return from England; and also that he will not be considered eligible for furlough until he shall have served in India for eight years after the resumption of his duty.

ORDER—No. 399, Educational, dated 5th July 1898.

Communicated to the Director of Public Instruction.

2. The condition imposed by the Secretary of State should be noted.
