GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 25th May 1898, No. 5985.

I have the honour to submit, for the approval of Government, the accompanying revised rules for regulating the award of the "Prince of Wales' Sanskrit Scholarship" in supersession of the rules sanctioned in G.Os., No. 430, Educational, dated 21st November 1877, and No. 130, Educational, dated 6th July 1882. The revised rules have the approval of the Zamindar of Mandasa.

2. The original funded capital of the endowment was Rs. 2,000, which has since increased to Rs. 2,800 by the addition to the capital of the unexpended interest; and this amount, at the present rate of interest, less commission, will yield an annual income of about Rs. 97. The rate of scholarship has, therefore, been fixed at Rs. 8 per mensem.

3. As the rules now stand, the scholarship is awardable to a boy who secures the highest number of marks in Sanskrit in the Middle School (now Lower Secondary) Examination, even though he may have failed to pass the examination. The rules have therefore been modified so as to make the scholarship awardable to the boy who passes the examination completely, securing the highest number of marks with Sanskrit as second language.

ORDER—No. 413, Educational, dated 9th July 1898.

The revised rules, as shown in the appendix to this proceedings, are approved.

This is a Sanskrit scholar-ship, and given for proficiency in Sanskrit. The D.P.I. states, in the last para of his letter, that the scholar-ship will be awarded to the boy who passes the Lower Secondary examination completely, securing the highest number of marks in Sanskrit. The revised rules however do not provide for this. vide rule 4. Under this rule the scholar-ship will be awarded to the successful candidate in the L.S. Exam, who, taking Sanskrit as his second language, passes first in the Ganjam District.
