Office of the Director of Public Instruction,

Madras, 27th July 1893

No. 8163.

From

The Honorable Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D.,

Director of Public Instruction,

Madras,

To

The Secretary to Government,

Madras, Department,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that the Government Training School, Muddalore, which has been reduced from the lower secondary to the primary grade with reference to G.O. No. 47 Wd., dated 27th January 1893, has not been working satisfactorily owing to the want of a good Practising Department. As a consequence of the keen rivalry with a number of well conducted vernacular schools in the town under private management the strength of the practising section attached to the above training school dwindled from 24 in 1895-96 and 13 in 1896-97 to 22 during 1897-98, a number which is even lower than that of the students under training. These students can naturally obtain very little practice in the methods of teaching and in the management of classes and have thus little or no opportunity of becoming efficient teachers. The necessity for transferring the training school to a locality where a strong practising school can be secured or formed having thus become very imperative. I obtained from the Assistant Inspector of Schools, Arcot Division, a statement showing the number of uncertified primary grade teachers in the several taluqs of the district from which it was ascertained that the taluqs of Villavanchi in the Muddalore Taluq and of Muddalore and Villavanchi in the Chidambaram Taluq contained comparatively large number of uncertified primary teachers. But as it has been reported that suitable accommodation and a strong practising school cannot be removed to either Villavur or Chidambaram it has been decided to remove the training school at Chidambaram to Tridbachalam, where a suitable building is available for a rental of Rs. 10 per annum, which is less than that paid at Chidambaram, viz. Rs. 14, and where the Board Lower Primary school with a strength of about 100 pupils would form an excellent practicing school.

 Tridbachalam is easily accessible from Chidambaram and Chidambaram by rail and is the headquarters of the District Magistrate, the Subdivisions and the Stationary Police. It is formerly also the headquarters of the local Assistant Collector. The Chidambaram taluk board is prepared to transfer the above primary school which is the chief feeder to the Board Lower Secondary school at the station to Government for the purpose of being converted into the practicing location of the Government Training school on its transfer from Chidambaram to Tridbachalam, and further to arrange for the two permanent teachers of the staff being provided for elsewhere. In these circumstances, I beg to request that the early sanction of Government may be obtained to the transfer with effect from 1st January 1935, of the Government Primary Training school, Chidambaram to Tridbachalam, with the existing staff and establishment.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Duncan

Director of Public Instruction.
