Respected Sir,

As directed in Para 2 of the Endorsement No. $\frac{1608}{19.5.98}$ of the District Surgeon to the Letter No. $\frac{62}{14.5.98}$ of the Principal Medical College Madras. I respectfully beg to submit this as my application for Exemption from passing the necessary 1st to qualify me for admission into the Apothecary's Department of the Medical College.

I beg to state that I have been in service of the Taluk Board Madanapalle as a Third Class Hospital Assistant for the past seven years and all along have maintained a good name, and been working to the satisfaction of my superiors and of my country women here. I have appeared for the departmental Examination held in April this year which, on passing entitles me to draw an increased pay as 2nd class Hospital Assistant. As I have a very ardent desire to prosecute my studies for the Apothecary test which will enable me to be more useful to my peo, and as I have passed only the Middle School Examination in English in the 1st Class I ~~very~~ respectfully request that in the interest of the advancement of female special Education you will be pleased to recommend me to Government for Exemption.

Exemption from passing the Higher Grade Examination for women to be fit me to undergo training in the Medical College for the Apothecary Grade.

For this act of kindness I shall feel highly indebted to you.

I beg to be Signed C. Gopal Rao
