H.O. Form No. 2 (1,000)—June 1897.

No. 4776.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS,
Dated Ootacamund the 20th August 1898.

From

A. G. CARDEW, Esq., M.A., J.C.S.

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF PRISONS,

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.

SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to sanction the exemption from the Educational Rules, with a view to employment in this Department, of one Jamal Ahmed.

2. This officer has served for ten years in the Jail Department as a warder and Head warder, and is now aged 31. He can read and write English, Tamil, Telugu & Hindustani, but has passed no examination. He is a smart officer, good drill, and strict disciplinarian.

3. Great difficulty has been met with in procuring suitable candidates for the superior posts of the Warder Establishment at the Rajahmundry Central Jail. In March last the Superintendent had neither an Assistant Chief warder, nor a Deputy Chief warder, the officer holding the former appointment having been reduced and the latter having resigned, and he telegraphed soliciting the transfer of Jamal Ahmed from the Salem Central Jail. As the Jail was in special difficulties owing to the serious sickness, which has from time to time been reported to Government, and as an efficient staff was urgently necessary, Jamal Ahmed was sent, and has been since employed as Assistant Chief warder, but has not been allowed to draw more than Rs 15 per mensem pay, in view of his being unqualified.

4. The Superintendent, after full trial, reports that Jamal Ahmed has given every satisfaction in the post of Assistant Chief warder, and recommends his permanent retention retention, and this application for his exemption is consequently submitted to Government.

5. It may be added that the post of Deputy Chief warden has not yet been filled up, no suitable qualified candidate having been found.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. G. Cardew.
Insptr: Genl of Prisons.
