THE Secretary to Government, Educational Department.

SIR,

With reference to the Government of India letter No: 29 Home Department dated 12 January 1897 conveying sanction to the grant of an allowance of Rs 100/- a month to Mr S. C. Falconer for performing the duties of lecturer on Midwifery to the female students of the Medical College, Madras, I have the honour to enquire whether in the letter No: 675 Educational dated 2nd November 1896 therein referred to, the Madras Govern-ment proposed to pay the allowance to Mr Falconer for more than 9 months in a year. From the papers noted in the margin, it will be seen that the sanction to the payment has been only for 9 months in each year in accordance with which it has hitherto been paid.
 Mr Falconer now however, claims the allowance for the tenth month

37 of appendix to Government order 978 Financial dated 25th November 1897 in which provision is made in the Revised Estimate for the grant of the allowance for 11 months. Under Article 156 rule 1 Civil Account Code, the fact of pro-authority for this office to pass the extra remuneration, which will require the sanction of the Government of India, unless in sanctioning the allowance of 100/- a

The Director of Public Instruction.

Sir,

With reference to the letter from the Accountant-General, Madras, referred to under your endorsement No. 4982 dated 29th April 1898 enquiring whether the Madras Government proposed to pay the allowance to Mr. S. C. Falconer for more than 9 months in the year, I have the honour to point out that the only reason why this question can arise is due to the fact that owing to the antedating of the Session, Mr. Falconer had to lecture for a period of 11 months instead of 9, and that such an extension will not again occur and further that due provision had been made for the payment of the extended course.

SIR,

In returning Endorsement No. 864, Educational, dated 4th April last regarding the allowance due to Mr. Falconer, I have the honour to submit copy of a letter No. 41 of the 4th May 1898 from which it will be seen that the reason why Mr. Falconer had to lecture for a period of eleven months in 1897-98 instead of the usual nine months session consequent service and that I therefore request of India may be to Mr. Falconer for 1897-98 only.

In G.O.No.588, Educl., dated 19th September 1884 this Govt. sanctioned the appointment of Mrs. Scharlieb as Lecturer on midwifery and the diseases of women to the female students of the Medical College on a fixed monthly allowance of Rs.100 for nine months in the year. This appointment has since February 1894 been held by Mr. S.E. Falconer, Military Asst. Surgeon attached to the Maternity hospital, under the sanction of the Govt. of India conveyed in Mr. Hewett's letter recorded in G.O.No.53, Educational, dated 25th January 1897.

2. In current No.391 the Accountant General enquires whether in the letter No. 675, Educl., dated 2nd Nov. 1896 the Madras Govt. proposed to pay the allowance to Mr. Falconer for more than nine months in the year. He points out that the sanction to the payment has been only for 9 months in the year in accordance with which it has hitherto been paid, but states that Mr. Falconer claims the allowance for a tenth month.

3. The D.P.I., to whom the letter of the Accountant-General was referred, states in current No. 806 that during 1897-98 Mr. Falconer lectured for a period of eleven months instead of nine months in consequence of the change of the date of the College session from the 1st October to 2nd August, and that such an extension will not occur again. He requests that the sanction of the Govt. of India may be obtained for payment of the allowance to Mr. Falconer for a period of eleven months during 1897-98 only.

4. With regard to the enquiry of the Accountant-General referred to in para. 2 of this note, it may be observed that it was not proposed by this Govt. in its letter No. 675 Educl., dated 2nd Nov. 1896 to pay the allowance of Rs. 100 a month to Mr. Falconer for more than 9 months in the year, and it does not appear that the 9 months limit has been removed. It, therefore, seems necessary to apply for the sanction of the Govt. of India to the extra allowance to Mr. Falconer, and this, it is submitted, may be done. It is true that provision was made in the Revised Estimate for 1897-98 for the grant of the allowance for 11 months (vide note (6) on page 37 of appendix to G.O. 978, Finl., dated 25th Nov. 1897), but the Accountant-General points out that under article 156 rule 1 of the Civil Account Code the fact of provision having

2. In Mr. Hewett's letter No. 29, dated 12th January 1897 sanction was accorded by the Govt. of India to the arrangement under which Mr. S.E. Falconer, Military Assistant Surgeon, attached to the Maternity Hospital, Madras, had since Feb. 1894, pending the appointment of a competent lady lecturer, been entrusted with the duty of lecturing on midwifery to the female students of the Madras Medical College on a fixed monthly allowance of Rs. 100 for nine months in the year.

3. It has been brought to the notice of this Govt. that during 1897-98 Mr. Falconer lectured for a period of eleven months instead of nine months in consequence of the change of the date of the Medical College session from the 1st of October to the 2nd of August. Such an extension, it may be observed, will not occur again, and due provision was made in the budget for the extended course. I am to add that H.E. the Governor in Council is not unmindful of the desire of the Govt. of India, expressed in Mr. Lusson's letter No. 552, dated 5th May 1898, that the present arrangement ~~should~~ should terminate as soon as possible, and I am to state that steps are being taken to secure the services of a competent lady teacher to lecture instead of Mr. Falconer.

4. Under these circumstances I am to request that the sanction of the the Govt. of India, necessary under article 156 rule I of the Civil Account Code, may be accorded to the payment to Mr. Falconer of the allowance for eleven months during 1897-98.
