In respect of the increase recommended last year the Honble Mr. Grose noted "Rs 500 is ample pay for Rangappa. He gives 25 lectures now.
 If he has to give 30, he will get Rs 16 2/3
 a lecture and that is quite enough".

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras, 30 August 1898.

No. 10008

From

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.SC., LL.D.,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department,

Fort Saint George.

SIR,

In G.O.No 906 Educational, dated 26th November 1895 the honorarium to the Lecturer on Medical Jurisprudence at the Law College was increased from Rs.300 to Rs.500 owing to an increase in the number of lectures delivered from 15 to 25. The Lecturer reported last year that he was unable to deal with the subject effectually in even twenty-five lectures and applied for permission to deliver a series of thirty lectures to the Pleaders class, this being the minimum number prescribed by the University for the Medical degree Examinations. At the same time he requested that he might be allowed a corresponding increase of Rs.100 to his remuneration, which has been calculated at the rate of Rs.20 per lecture. Mr. Bilderbeck, who acted for me at the time, approved of the proposal to increase the number of lectures on the subject and made a lump provision of Rs.100 in the budget estimate for 1898-99 to meet the increase of allowance which the above proposal involved, but the provision was struck out by Government as being unauthorized. I, therefore, beg to request that permission may now be granted to my providing in the budget estimate for 1899-1900 for an increased remuneration of Rs.600 to the Lecturer on Medical Jurisprudence in view of the facts stated above. I have the honour to be,

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. G. Gorman
Director of Public Instruction.
