C. No 1060 of 98

SUBJECT.

Draft agreement to be entered into by Mr. Bruce Foote.

FOR ORDERS.

With C.No.1060, the Govt. Solicitor forwards a fresh draft of the agreement to be entered into by Mr. Bruce Foote.

Clauses 5 & 6 of the draft agreement require consideration:-

Clause 5 states that if Govt. buys his collection of prehistoric antiquities, Mr. Bruce Foote shall compile a catalogue of such antiquities in the Museum and shall include it in a separate chapter in his catalogue. But, as Mr. Bruce Foote's catalogue is to be published before his collection is offered to Govt. for sale, it is impossible to include in that catalogue a work to be prepared some time after the sale of the collection. The catalogue of the collection in the Museum may, it is submitted, be published as a separate volume or as a " supplement" to Mr. Bruce Foote's catalogue.

Clause 6 is entirely incorrect. Mr. Bruce Foote's request is that he should should be allowed to consult his collection, after its purchase by Govt., when preparing his illustrated volume of notes, which is to follow the publication of his catalogue (vide page p.2 of Mr. Bruce Foote's letter × in G.O. No. 289 Ed., dated 7th May 1898), and that he should further be allowed to figure any specimen that he may require to illustrate his volume of notes (vide p 3 of his letter × in G.O. No. 478 Ed., dated 4th August 1898). This is a different publication from the catalogue of prehistoric antiquities in the Museum.

flag A × d. 15th march 1898.

flag B. d. 9th July 98.

The Govt. Solicitor may be asked to alter the clauses accordingly.

The draft of the agreement to be entered into by Mr. R. B. Foote will be returned to the Govt. Solicitor, who will be requested to make the following alterations in clauses 5 + 6.

2. Clause 5 should state that the Catalogue of the collection in the Museum will be published as a separate volume or supplement to Mr. Bruce Foote's catalogue. It cannot be included in the catalogue raisonné as a separate chapter, as the latter is to be published before the sale of Mr. Bruce Foote's collection.

3 Clause 6 should state that Mr. Bruce Foote shall be allowed to consult his collection after its purchase by Govt. when preparing his illustrated volume of notes, which is to follow the publication of his catalogue, & that he should be allowed to figure any specimen that he may require to illustrate this volume, which has nothing to do with the Catalogue of the collection in the Museum

NOTE FOR THE ~~CHIEF~~ SECRETARY.

Please see the note for orders & the reference to the Govt Solr. at Flag C.

Mr. Bruce Foote in his letter d. 9th July 1898 (Flag B) stipulated that he should have full liberty to consult his collection after its purchase by Govt. when preparing his volume of notes & that he should be allowed to figure any specimen that he might require to illustrate his volume. This illustrated volume of notes is to follow the publication of the Catalogue raisonné & is distinct from it. Clause 6 as it stands, does not provide for this stipulation, & seems to imply that the Catalogue raisonné is to be completed after the sale of the collection to Govt, though in fact it is to be published before the sale.

The Govt Soli: does not seem to have altered the clause as he was asked to do in para 3 of the reference at Flag C.
