No. 7752

From

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.SC., LL.D., DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, ~~Educational~~ DEPARTMENT,
Fort St. George.

(Thro' the Accountant General).

SIR,

I have the honour to state that the revised bylaws of the Madras University prescribe the marginally noted

Physiology-systematic-one course
Do Practical including Histology-one course
Do Chemical-------------------------one course courses in Physiology for candidates for degrees in medicine. The existing arrangements in the Medical College provide only for a course of systematic Physiology and Histology. Lectures in Practical and Chemical Physiology have for the first time to be delivered under the extended syllabus during the session of 1898-99. The present Professor of Physiology states, and the Principal of the College and the Surgeon General concur with him in the opinion, that it would be utterly impossible for him with his present attached hospital duties to teach the additional branches up to the required standard. I beg therefore to recommend, in consultation with the Surgeon General and the College authorities, with effect from 1st January 1899, the following proposals for the very early sanction of Government:-

vide by law 235 at p 608 the Calendar for 97-98

(1) That sanction be accorded to the preparation of estimates for adapting the present Physiological lecture room as a Physiological laboratory, with fittings for gas and water on the model of the hygiene laboratory.

(2) that until the proposals for the reorganisation of the mensem.

(3) that this Professor be allowed a specially qualified assistant on a salary of Rs.100-1 0-150 per mensem, which is the salary fixed for the post of assistant to the Professor of Hygiene.

(4) that two attendants, one on Rs.12 and the other on Rs.7 per mensem be entertained.

2. For the proposed new Professorship the Surgeon General recommends Surgeon Captain R.H.Elliot, his Secretary, who, it is stated, can undertake the work without prejudice to the duties of his present office, and I beg to support his recommendation, Dr.Elliot having filled, with credit, the chair of Physiology for a year during Dr.Pope's absence on furlough a few years ago. Early sanction is solicited to this appointment, in order to afford sufficient time to this Professor to arrange for the supply of requisite apparatus, to draw up the syllabus and to prepare lectures for the revised courses in Physiology.

3. Until the Physiological laboratory becomes available it will be possible to arrange for practical work being carried on either in the Chemical or in the hygiene laboratory.

4. I would have submitted these proposals much earlier had it not been for the difficulty of finding the requisite funds for the purpose. The Principal of the Medical College states that he cannot anticipate any savings in the budget grant for the college from which the proposed expenditure can be met, nor are savings available in the budget provision for the Medical Department, owing to the expenditure in connection with the plague precautionary measures. The proposed expenditure was not foreseen when the budget estimate for the Medical College for the current year was submitted to Government last year, as it was then hoped that orders in regard to the redistribution of the duties of the Professors of the Medical College and of the officers at the General Hospital would soon be passed. In these circumstances I am constrained to seek the sanction of Government for an additional allotment of Rs.638 or ~~in~~ an round sum Rs.650, which is the sum required to pay the establishment proposed for the months of January and February 1899, and I beg

The Director of Public Instruction,
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to my letter No T/98, dated the 9th May 1898, I have the honour to state that Surgeon-Captain R.H. Elliot having since been selected for the appointment of District Medical and Sanitary officer, Nilgiris, is not now available to teach Physiology at the Medical College. In his place, I would recommend Surgeon-Captain C.Donovan M.D., my acting Secretary, who is willing to do the work in addition to his own duties.

2. Dr.Donovan says that he has taken out advanced courses both practical and systematic in the subject under Professor Parsen, Trinity College, Dublin, and has also had other opportunities of mastering it. He is, therefore, well qualified in my opinion to teach the subject.

In C. No. 1002 the D.P.I. states that under the revised by-laws of the Madras University (vide by-law 235 at page 608 of the Madras University Calendar for 1897-98) lectures in Practical and Chemical Physiology have for the first time to be delivered during the Sessions of 1898-99 and that it would be utterly impossible for the present Professor of Physiology with his attached hospital duties to teach the additional branches up to the required standard. He, therefore, recommends that until orders are passed on the reorganization of the Medical College, a minor Professorship in the revised courses of Physiology be created on a salary of Rs. 200 per mensem and that the Professor be allowed an Asst. on Rs. 100-50-150 a month and two attendants, one on Rs. 12 and the other on Rs. 7 per mensem. These proposals are to have effect from 1st January next. He also requests that Surgeon Captain C. Donovan, Secretary to the Surgeon General, may at once be appointed to the new Professorship so that he may make the necessary arrangements for the delivery of the lectures from January next. He further states that there is no provision in the Medical College budget to meet the charge of the new Professorship etc. for the months of January and February 1899 and requests an additional allotment of Rs.650. The D.P.I. also requests permission to provide for the charge in the budget estimate for the College for 1899-1900. The A.G. reports that under articles 87 & 182 of the C.S.R. the sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary to Surgeon Captain Donovan holding the minor Professorship permanently. It is also necessary because this minor Professorship is not included in the Medical Warrant of April 1867. ~~sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary.~~ The proposed arrangement is, however, merely temporary. It may be noted that under the proposals now made the Supt. of the Ophthalmic Hospital, who is Professor of both Ophthalmic Surgery and Physiology (vide page 15 of G.O. No. 756, Pub., dated 28th June 1867 flag B) will continue to be Professor of Ophthalmic Surgery and to draw the consolidated pay of the appointments. Thus no saving will result from the proposal of the D.P.I. to take away the Professorship of Physiology from the Supt. of the Ophthalmic Hospital.

Seen by F.D. for C.i. – I think all such proposals should do so before circⁿ. Once the member in charge of a dept. has sanctioned addl. expenditure not provided for in the budget or capable of being met by savings, and perhaps a G.O. has issued in the Dept concerned, it is almost impossible for the F.D. to interfere effectively & thus the control it should exercise is lost.

H.S.

He can put it in – whether my successor who will have to prepare the budget for 1899-1900 will allow it to be retained, remains to be seen.
