Most Respected Sir.

I the undersigned most respectfully beg to submit the accompanying petition dated the 21st. October 1897 for your honor's kind & favorable consideration.

In submitting the petition I beg to state that a petition of the kind was addressed direct to the Madras Government, but it was returned from the Pension Departt. with Endorsement No. 615 thereon underdate 16th August 1898 directing me to submit it through the head of the Department to which I belonged.

I beg to remain

May it Please your Excellency.

The humble petitioner Arcot Varadarajulu Mudaly late Gallery attendant Government Museum Madras humbly begs to lay the following for His Excellency's merciful Consideration.

The humble petitioner was discharging his duties as Gallery attendant for a period of more than 20 years to the entire Satisfaction of his Superiors without any mistake and the post was, as it were, a legacy left him by his father who retired after a faithful Service of 18 years. The humble petitioner was removed from Service after 20 years faithful Service for the mere reason that he slept when he was on duty: and this was chiefly attributed to the humble petitioners old age and general debility. When an appeal was made for reinstatement to His Excellency the humble petitioner was informed that the Order passed by the Supdt. Govt. Museum is final.

The humble petitioner has been all along Serving in the Department with full hope that after rendering the required Service, would get pension to Spend his remainder part of his life in resort as his limits would then be wearied and he Could not after that period likely to earn for his daily bread. Whereas after the faithful Service of 20 years the humble petitioner was removed from the Service. And thereby he suffers much for his daily bread owing to the infirmities of his age.

Therefore the humble petitioner once more humbly craves that he may be pitied at the circumstances he is put into & be provided with pension at least for having rendered faithful Service to the Government.

For this act of benevolence petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray-

His Excellency's most Obedt. & humble Servt.
