My lord Chancellor,

I beseech your excellency would waste a few minutes on this little petition of a humble student. They (I mean the authorities, the Syndicate) have passed a law ordaining that the examination of the B.A.
Candidates should henceforth be conducted beginning from the 8th December, that is, (5) five weeks earlier than heretofore. This is in itself a good measure, since it is convenient for students beginning for law studies. But if the law were to come into force this year, it would be a great injustice to us. It should be known to your excellency that Colleges generally close in the beginning of December, and thus under the old regime students had 6 weeks to collect and arrange their scattered knowledge of notice has been given us. I am confident of justice at your excellency's hands. Hoping that you would give this rather blunt petition, your kindest consideration and requesting that to be pardoned such offences & against your excellency's dignity as I may have been guilty of in thus writing. I hold to write to you, I hope to hear from you.

I beg to return your most kind

W. Zakobianan.

O. J. I shall feel highly honored if your reply. — K. L. S. Lumanian of the multitudinous subjects prescribed for the 3 branches of the B. A. Examination. They had thus time ~~to~~ cool down the heat of crowded knowledge, and steady their confused minds, so that they might be in a proper frame of mind to meet the examination. We have been relying upon this period of preparation, for nearly two years, to complete ~~or~~ and steady our knowledge, and the University ~~will~~ will be doing great wrong to us if it disappoints our long-cherished expectations. In this opinion I am thoroughly seconded by all students (that I know of) though none other may have taken the like liberty, that of writing to you. I therefore implore that your excellency will postpone the operation of the law, for two years, (which is required by equity) or at least for one year. It is not just that we should take the consequences of a law without due notice
