2. In connection with this arrangement I have to point out that not the least important of the duties pertaining to the chair of Pathology is the performance of Necropsies in the General Hospital by the Professor, who has to teach the students this very important subject. Even supposing he had the time, he could not simultaneously be allowed to perform Necropsies and to undertake the large amount of surgical operative work that he would have to perform when in charge of the women and children's wards in the Hospital. The Surgeon of the 2nd District with - as at present arranged - the charge of the Women and Childrens wards has, I am quite certain, as much work as one man can possibly perform and the addition of the duties of the chair of Pathology would then render the task a physical impossibility.

The Director of Public Instruction, Madras

Sir,

With reference to G. O No 604 dated 28th April 1898 I have the honour to request that you will kindly ascertain from Government what addition to my pay I may draw for the additional charge placed upon me. I venture to remind you that the present holder of the appointment of Resident Medical officer, General Hospital is a man in the temporary employment of Government and thereby can only draw Rs 500 pay whereas the pay of the post of Resident Medical officer and Professor of Pathology when I held it was Rs 800. By my transfer from the post of Resident Medical officer, General Hospital to that of Surgeon 2nd District, I lose pay to the extent of Rs 50 and also lose a free house.

I therefore respectfully suggest that Rs 200, a month, being part of the amount no longer drawn by the Resident Medical officer, be paid to me for the extra duties.

SUBJECT.

Professor of Pathology, Medical College

FOR ORDERS.

The posts of Resident Surgeon, General Hospital, and of Professor of Pathology in the Medical College are combined appointments and carry a consolidated pay of Rs.800 a month. These appointments were last held by Surgeon-Captain Giffard from the 5th June 1895. In G.O.R No.394 Pub., dated 22nd April 1898 (flag B) Surgeon-Captain Giffard was appointed Surgeon, 2nd District, sub pro tem, and Dr. A.C. Rendle, one of the Temporary Medical Officers arrived from England, was appointed Resident Surgeon at the General Hospital. In G.O. No. 604 Pub., dated 28th April 1898 (flag A) the Govt. accepted the opinion of the Surgeon-General and the Director of Public Instruction that a change in the office of Professor of Pathology would then be inconvenient and resolved that Surgeon-Capt. Giffard who had been appointed to officiate as Surgeon, 2nd District

District should continue to be Professor of Pathology. Under para 2 of the General Order by His Excellency the Governor-General of India in Council No.370 Military, dated 4th April 1867 (flag C) the Local Govt. has power to order this change, but the order making the change, that is - G.O.No.604 Pub., 28th April 1898, has not been communicated to the Accountant-General. If this had been done, the Accountant-General would have reported as to the pay of Surgeon-Capt. Giffard under the new arrangement. It may also be noted that the G.O. has not been communicated to Educational. In Cur.No.958, the Director of Public Instruction forwards copy of a letter from Surgeon-Capt. Giffard in which he requests that a remuneration of Rs.200 per mensem may be paid to him for the Professorial duties he is performing in addition to his duties as Surgeon 2nd District. The Director of Public Instruction strongly recommends the grant of an allowance.

Dr. Rendle, who is acting as Resident Surgeon, is paid only Rs.500 a month so that a sum of Rs.300 per mensem out of the pay attached to the combined appointments of Resident Surgeon and Professor of Pathology is available. In a D.O. recorded in G.O.No.604 Pub., d/ 28th April 1898 the Surgeon-General has recommended that Rs.200 may be deducted from the consolidated pay of Rs.800 and added to the emoluments of Dr. Giffard, leaving Rs.600 a month for the Resident Surgeon - Orders are solicited.

The Director of Public Instruction also submits an extract from a letter from the Principal, Medical College, in which that Officer says that it is physically impossible for Surgeon-Capt. Giffard to officiate as Surgeon, 2nd District, and to hold the Professorship of Pathology, and that in the interests of the College it is necessary that an officer of the Indian Medical Service should be appointed to carry out the work as heretofore of the Resident Surgeon and Professor of Pathology, until such time as the reorganization of the duties of the medical staff is completely carried out.

As far as 'Public' is concerned there appears to be no objection to the proposal to allow Captain Giffard Rs 200 p.m. for his professional duties, as the combined pay of the 2nd

Dist-, & the Res. Surgeoncy & the Professorships of Pathology will not exceed that fixed by the Govt of India at C. (G.O. G.G. 370 Mil. d 4-4-67)

Note

Under para. 2 of the General Order by H.E. the Governor General in Council, No. 370, Military, d. 4 April 1867, there appears to be no objection to the deduction of Rs 200 from the consolidated pay of the combined appointment of Resident Surgeon & Professor of Pathology in view to its being given to the officer performing the duties of Professor of Pathology, leaving Rs 600 a month to the Resident Surgeon, ~~so long as the aggregate of the salaries of these appointments is not exceeded~~. It is doubtful however whether the audit office will accept this view of the matter, and as the Accountant General has not yet been consulted, it is submitted that a reference should now be made to that office.
