SIR,

With reference to your letter No. 695 Gl. dated the 11th of October 1898, I have the honour to state that under article 254, Civil Service Regulations you must be, considered to have joined your appointment only on the date on which you, actually took charge of your appointment, i.e. 11th October 98, and as you have thereby overstayed your furlough by 5 days you are not entitled to any allowance for that period. You have also ceased to have a lien on your present appointment and should be reappointed by Government vide, article 261 (a) (i), Civil Service Regulations.

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.SC., LL.D.,
DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
Madras,

To

The Secretary to Government,
Educational Department,
Fort Saint George,
(Thro' the Accountant General).

SIR,

With reference to the enclosed letter of the Accountant-General, No 4768, dated 22nd ultimo, pointing out that M.R.Ry. N. Raghunathachariyar, Assistant Inspector of schools, Presidency Division, overstayed his furlough by five days, that he is not, therefore, entitled to any allowance for that period, and that he should be reappointed by Government under article 261 (a) (i) of the Civil Service Regulations, I have the honour to state that as the furlough for two years granted to him expired on the afternoon of the 5th ultimo, I permitted him to join the appointment on the 6th ultimo. But he could not then submit the usual Permanent advance Acknowledgment as the Acting Assistant Inspector was at Nellore on inspection duty and, owing to an error of judgment, did not return to Headquarters on the 6th idem.

2. The Acting Assistant Inspector returned to headquarters and formally handed over charge of the office to M.R.Ry. N. Raghunathachariyar on the 11th ultimo. He subsequently joined his new appointment of Assistant Inspector, Ceded Districts Division, on the 15th idem-within the joining time admissible to him, and he does not, therefore, claim any acting allowance for the period from the 6th to 10th for his connexion with the Presidency Division. The above arrangement was considered necessary as M.R.Ry.N.Raghunathachariyar had availed himself of the maximum limit of furlough admissible to him.

3. As M.R.Ry.Raghunathachariyar actually joined his appointment on the due date, he is entitled to salary and allowance for the period objected to by the Accountant Department. No extra expenditure is incurred by the Acting Assistant Inspector having worked at Nellore from the 6th to 10th October. In these circumstances, I beg to request that M.R.Ry.N.Raghunathachariyar may be considered to have joined his appointment on the 6th ultimo.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

D Duncan

Director of Public Instruction.

Forwarded.

As M.R.Ry. Ragunatha chariar took charge of his appointment on the 11th October only he can only draw pay from that date. He has overstayed his furlough and under Article 261 Civil Service Regulations, it will be necessary to reappoint him from the date he actually assumed charge of his office.

C. No. 1498 of 1898.

SUBJECT.

Overstaying leave.

FOR ORDERS.

M.R.Ry. N.Raghunathachariar, Asstt. Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, was on furlough. His furlough expired on the 5th October last and he joined his office with the permission of the D.P.I. on the 6th idem. His locum tenens was not, however, present on that date at the head quarters; he was on tour in Nellore and returned to the head quarters only on the 11th idem. Raghunathachariar was therefore not able to formally take over charge of his office before the 11th.

The A.G. holds that Raghunathachariar has in consequence overstayed his leave by five days and is not entitled to any allowance for that period and that he having ceased to have a lien on his appointment should be reappointed by Govt. under Article 261 (a) (i).

Orders are solicited.

7-7-19
18-11-98

Article 261(a) of the C.S.R. says that an officer who remains absent after the end of his leav leave is entitled to no allowance for the period of such absence & ceases to have a lien on any appointment.

In this case Raghunathachariar's leave expired on the afternoon of the 5th Oct & he joined his office on the 6th, but as he did not take over formal charge till the 11th, the A. G. considers him to have ~~been~~ overstayed his furlough for five days.

It is submitted that as Raghunathachariar joined his office on the 6th, he cannot reasonably be considered to have been 'absent' under art 260 (a).

Even if he is considered to have been absent, Govt. may under Art. 262 exempt him from loss of his appointment, as his 'default' was due to circumstances beyond his control.

To Acct. Genl. a. o.

Will the Acct. Genl. kindly note

(a) generally, what are the most favourable terms both as to service & allowances that can be granted to Raganatha Chari

(b) whether under art. 67 the Director cannot permit the transfer to have been made "otherwise" than by both officers being present at Hd. Qrs. Attention is directed to the Dir.'s definite statement that he allowed R. to join his appt. on the due date. Cannot this be taken as permitting transfer in that unusual form?

Assistant Inspectors of Schools are appointed by Government. Government orders would therefore be necessary to allow of charge being made over elsewhere than at Head Quarters.

If Government considers that M. R. Ry Ragunatha chariar actually took charge on the 6th as stated then there will be no account objection to article 67 being applied in that case. The acting officer will lose his officiating allowances from 6th.
