The ground mentioned by the Collector does not appear to be a valid one for exemption from the exam rules.

I have found farrier peons invaluable. I don't know whether H.M. would care for a ref. being made to Rev.

H T 18 10 98

Yes - ask Rev. I always made a point of having a farrier-peon, and his knowledge was of much greater value than if he had known hygiene & Indian history instead!

From

Ag Collector of Cuddapah

To

The Secretary to Government,

Educational Department,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to request exemption from examination rules for Syed Saheb, proposed to be appointed peon in the Sub Collector's Office. The ground for the proposal is that the man is a nalband and will therefore be ~~invalua~~ invaluable in camp for horse shoing purposes. In this District I know only one man who can shoe a horse properly, and the other men are so bad that I was nearly killed and a horse badly hurt the other day owing partly to bad shoing.

A

A horse is nothing without his shoes, and as we all require horses every day and frequently on places where nalbands cannot be found. I would suggest that not only may the Sub-Collector's proposal be sanctioned but that a general rule may be passed sanctioning the entertainment of one unpassed person if he be a nalband in all Revenue offices.

I have the honor to be

NOTE FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY.

Educational C. No. 1293 of 1898

So far as the Revenue Deptt. is concerned there seems to be no objection to the exemption of Saiyad Sahib from examination rules.

The Collector of Cuddapah proposes also ~~that~~ a general rule should be passed authorizing the entertainment of one unpassed person in all Revenue offices if he be a Nalband (farrier). If this proposal is to be approved it is desirable that the Board should be consulted.
