SIR,

With reference to official memorandum No 35 dated 6th ultimo, I have the honour to state that on the amalgamation of the late Hindu Training School, Calicut, with the Training College in 1892, Mr. Thomas' services were dispensed with as he could not be provided for anywhere. But as the reorganization of the Calicut College as a Training College took effect only on the 14th July 1892, all the teachers and servants of the late Hindu Training school, Calicut, who could be provided for, were allowed to draw pay till the 13th July 1892 in order that there might be no break in their service. Hence Mr. Thomas claims pay until 13th July 1892 which date has been noted in his service book as the date of termination of his appointment in the Calicut Training School. He was not aware for a long time that all the other teachers of the late Hindu Training School drew pay for the period of 13 days.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

D Duncan

Director of Public Instruction.
