DECEMBER.

Requesting Government to exempt Mr. D. G. Viviani and A. Nagoji Rao from passing certain departmental tests and remarking on the practice of taking from other departments men of advanced age.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE

(SEPARATE REVENUE).

READ—letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Salt, Abkári and Customs Department, Southern Division, dated 6th June 1896, No. 2578.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting, with remarks, applications for exemption from passing departmental tests, of Messrs. Viviani and Smither.

READ—letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Salt, Abkári and Customs Department, Central Division, dated 9th August 1896, No. 3858.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting report in connection with Sub-Inspector Nagoji Rao who was recommended for exemption from passing certain departmental tests.

RESOLUTION—No. 531, dated 9th December 1897.

In continuation of Board's Proceedings, No. 550, dated 6th December 1897, the Board begs that Government will be pleased to sanction the special exemption of Inspector Mr. D. G. Viviani from passing tests A, B, C, D and F in the higher grade and E in two languages. This officer has for several years past done excellent work, especially as a preventive officer, but it has not been possible to promote him on account of his not having passed the departmental tests. His mother tongue not being English the difficulties in the way of his passing examinations in that language are greater than in the case of other European officers of his standing. His age is now 38 and there seems to be no prospect of his being able to pass the examinations in which he has failed hitherto. The Board also recommends the exemption of Sub-Inspector, A. Nagoji Rao from passing tests A, B, C and F in the lower grade as he is now 44 years old and cannot consequently be expected to study for examinations. The greater part of his service was in the Land Revenue Department in the work of which he had passed several tests and it was only on 14th September 1895 that he was entertained in the Salt, Abkári and Customs Department.
